Committee Reports

Academic Affairs – Mrs. Sayre indicated the committee passed a resolution regarding the programs of distinction. In addition to the two programs of distinction, business program and teacher education, Dr. Rowe has been asked to contact division chairs and ask them to outline their programs and share this with the Board, which will determine additional programs of distinction.

Finance and Facilities - Mr. Rogers said the committee suggests that the Board receive more financial reports. He introduced Dr. Charles Becker, recently named Interim VP for Business and Finance. The committee also discussed public safety, the installation of the siren system and the need for training regarding the system for students, faculty and staff.

External Affairs - Mrs. Sayre said the committee welcomed Kent Gamble who has assumed duties in the Admissions Office.
Student Affairs – Mr. Meisel reported the committee’s focus was on term bills and the number of students who are not being permitted to register for spring because fall bills have not been paid and indicated we need to find a solution. Dr. Aloia said this concern will be addressed immediately and he will give the Board a detailed analysis of how we are reshaping our financial aid/admissions approach at the February meeting.

President’s Report – The original building committee for University Point met recently and determined the University is $1.8 million dollars short for completion of the project. The committee is asking the Board to allow us to re-loan ourselves $1.5 million to continue construction. Mr. Bailey moved for Concord to loan itself $1,517,084 toward completion of University Point, Wayne Meisel seconded. Motion passed.

Dr. Aloia also provided a conceptual framework regarding the budget process to be presented this spring. There are three basic components: basic operations, strategic investments, and revenue generation.

There being no further matters, Mrs. Sayre moved for adjournment. Ms. Pitzer seconded. Motion passed.
