

Campus E-News

FACULTY &amp; STAFF NEWSLETTER

VOLUME 1 · NUMBER 6 · SEPTEMBER 24, 2009

Focus Events

Thursday, Sept. 24, 2009

- Film Society Movie
8 p.m.
A320 Marsh Hall

Friday, Sept. 25, 2009

- Volleyball
Concord vs. Ohio Valley U.
7 p.m.
Carter Center

Saturday, Sept. 26, 2009

- Concord vs. WV State
Alumni Tailgate: 4 p.m.
Kick-off: 6 p.m.
Callaghan Stadium

Monday, Oct. 12, 2009 – Sunday, Oct. 18, 2009

- Homecoming Activities

Tuesday, Oct. 27, 2009

- The Baltimore Consort
in Concert
8 p.m.
Main Auditorium
Alexander Fine Arts Center

See page 4 for the 2009
Homecoming Schedule

From the Desk of . . .

There are three things we expect from all our student-athletes. First and foremost, they are expected to be serious students which must include attending class on a regular basis. The pursuit of a degree should never be compromised. Second, and of equal importance, they are expected to abide by all NCAA and WVIAC rules and regulations. Third, they are expected to abide by the philosophy of good sportsmanship and ethical behavior at all times. If they are dedicated to these fundamental areas, success in athletics will naturally follow.

While the athletic tradition at Concord has been strong, the future looks even brighter. As our spring sports train for their upcoming seasons, our fall sports are off to an outstanding start.

The football team is a solid 3-1 under first-year head coach Mike Kellar. Concord started the season 3-0 before suffering its first loss to unbeaten Charleston last Saturday.

Volleyball is another pleasant surprise. Playing entirely on the road, new head coach Kate Southcott's team is 8-6, 1-2 in the WVIAC. The eight victories are already one more than all of last season.

Women's Soccer has lived up to its billing as a conference contender. Carol Bonnes' team is 4-3, 2-0 in the WVIAC, following an 8-0 victory at Ohio Valley last Friday.

Coach Steve Barrett continues to build the revived Men's Soccer program, now in its second season. The Mountain Lions are 3-4 and a competitive 1-2 in the WVIAC.

Men's Tennis is 1-0 this fall, while Women's Tennis has started its season 0-2.

Men's and Women's Golf have each played against strong competition and deep fields. The women were 12th of 14 and the men 7th of 16 in their last events.

Both Cross Country teams are youthful, and have gone against predominantly Division I teams. Coach Mike Cox hopes the strong competition will make the teams better for the conference and regional meets later in the season.

Throughout their college career, these young men and women will be faced with many challenges. Fortunately, with any big challenge comes the potential for big rewards. I feel confident they will reach their academic and athletic goals and Concord will become one of the premier programs in the country.

I invite you to join us this fall to support these student-athletes in pursuit of a championship.

CU AT THE GAME!

Kevin Garrett
Director of Athletics
Concord University

In this issue:

- Grad Fair
- Department Updates
- ROAR for . . .
- Notable and Newsworthy
- First Down
- Bulletin Board
- Rotary Bowl
- and more!

Department Updates

The Concord Social Work Organization (CSWO) invites students (Social Work majors and Non-Social Work majors) to an interest meeting on Oct. 1 at 2 p.m. in ADM 110. The primary purpose of this organization is to give students an opportunity to organize on their own behalf. There are many opportunities to become involved in the CSWO and leadership positions and committee memberships are always encouraged. Some ways the students in this organization participate include: being on a Curriculum Committee, which acts in an advisory capacity in the Social Work Department; participating in service projects and fundraisers; attending conferences together; and, playing a role in governance of the campus community by attending meetings of the Student Government Organization.

Submitted by: The Social Work Faculty

The Baltimore Consort will perform in the main auditorium of the Alexander Fine Arts Center on Tuesday, Oct. 27, 2009 at 8 p.m.

"The Baltimore Consort is perhaps the best balancing act of period authenticity, instrumental precision and sheer fun in the early music community today," raves the Times-Dispatch of Richmond, Va.

This five member ensemble uses a variety of instruments to bring to life music from the 16th to 18th centuries. With sounds from the lute, flute, early guitar and other instruments, the Baltimore Consort has delighted audiences on both sides of the Atlantic. Founded in 1980, the Baltimore Consort plays a variety of early English, Scottish and French music. The group focuses on the relationship between folk and art as well as song and dance. Their performances in the United States and abroad have earned the group recognition by Billboard Magazine as a Top Classical Crossover Artist (1993). They have made appearances on radio networks such as the BBC, CBC and Bavarian Radio.

The performance is free for Concord University students, staff and faculty members.

For members of the general public, admission is $5 for adults, $4 for senior citizens and $2 for non-Concord students. For more information contact the Concord University box office at 1-304-384-5101 or by e-mail at boxoffice@concord.edu.

Rachel Shelton and Danie Asbury, students in Concord University's Communication Arts Department, wrote this press release. Rachel's hometown is Lindsie. Danie's hometown is Bluefield, Va.

Concord Hosts Grad Fair

Concord hosted its one-stop-shop graduation fair Monday, Sept. 14 in the ballroom and TV lounge of the Jerry L. Beasley Student Center.

"We've had a wonderful turnout of grad schools this year and it's been a fairly busy morning," Tammy Monk, director of advancement/career services, said. "We're expecting even more people in the spring though because December is typically smaller than May graduations."

An estimated 40 students walked through the ballroom and TV lounge throughout the course of the day. Eleven grad schools set up tables.

Grad schools included: Appalachian School of Law, Appalachian State University, Concord University, King College, Lindsey-Wilson College, Marshall University, Mountain State University, Radford University, Sherman College, West Virginia University, and Wheeling Jesuit University.

This has been a bi-annual event since its beginnings in 2007. Carolyn Cox, registrar and co-coordinator of the grad fair, says it was inspired to create a one-stop shop for graduates.

Andrea Meador, a student majoring in Public Relations, wrote this press release. Her hometown is Ghent.

CU is #1!

Concord University recently achieved the highest CPA exam pass rate in West Virginia.

Congratulations!

Let's hear a 'ROAR' for...

Dr. Eloise M. Elliott

Dr. Elliott has been named the Ware Distinguished Professor at West Virginia University's College of Physical Activity and Sport Sciences. She will serve a one year appointment as Visiting Associate Professor at the College. Her work will focus on reducing childhood obesity rates in West Virginia and on the overall health and wellness of the state's youngsters.

First Down!!!

Concord University, along with West Virginia GEAR UP and Upward Bound, will host a "First Down Opportunity" for McDowell County high school students on Saturday, Sept. 26, 2009 in Athens. The agenda begins at 2 p.m. with campus tours and sessions focusing on success on the ACT/SAT and in college. Participants will then be treated to free admission to the CU home football game against West Virginia State. The event is a project of the McDowell County Initiative.

Send us your news!

Let us know what's new with you or your department...e-mail Campus E-News at enews@concord.edu. Be sure to include your name and telephone number so we can contact you, too. Deadline for submissions is 4 p.m. on the Monday prior to publication. Campus E-News is a biweekly newsletter published every other Thursday for the Faculty and Staff of Concord University.

Notable & Newsworthy

Andrea L. Tabor '93, associate director of admissions and international admissions, announces the birth of her grandson, Ethan Shane Thompson, born Sept. 7, 2009. "I am a PROUD MiMi," she said.

Dr. Lauri Reidmiller will be presenting at the West Virginia Art Education Association annual conference in October. The presentation entitled, "Photography in the Classroom", focuses on the photographic process invented in 1922 by a painter named Laszlo Moholy-Nagy. Photogram is derived from the Greek words photos meaning "light" and gram meaning "written". This interactive presentation will also provide educators with methods to integrate this photographic process into their existing art curriculum. Assisting Dr. Reidmiller with the presentation are two Concord University Art Education students: Victoria Stamper McInturff and Denise Ward.

Jessica Y. Lilly, southern bureau chief for West Virginia Public Broadcasting, recently produced two stories that aired on National Public Radio. On Labor Day, Massey Energy was the main sponsor for the "Friends of America" rally in Logan County. Lilly produced a 1 minute story that aired on NPR Sept. 7 on the rally and a 1.5 minute story that aired the following morning on NPR's "Morning Edition." She worked with her news director, Scott Finn, to produce a longer piece for WV Public Radio and their website. Read and listen to this story at <http://www.wvpubcast.org/newsarticle.aspx?id=11142>. "To have a story broadcast nationally is a big honor and a great personal achievement," Lilly said. "As a former Concord University student, and current adjunct teacher, I think this is just one example of the accomplishments that come from our broadcasting department in Communication Arts. I am so thrilled to be able to continue to strive for excellence as the radio workshop instructor."

Cecilia Fizer from the Mathematics department had the distinct honor and pleasure of pinning gold anchors on her son's shirt collar on Sept. 16 in a ceremony recognizing his promotion to Chief in the U.S. Naval Services. Chief Frank R. Carnegie (right) has served in the Navy since July of 1991. Frank has received numerous commendations and, in conjunction with his expert gun and rifle marksmanship, agreed to run the shooting range training exercises for a while at the Kings Bay Naval Base. His main responsibility during his years of service has been serving as and training others to become a Torpedoman's Mate. He has served on several different nuclear submarines away from home and his family three months at a time twice a year. Frank reassures his mother not to worry about him on assignment because if he ever had to go to work and really do his job "the world would cease to be as anyone now knows it." He has faith that the diplomacy of our world leaders will prevent him from ever doing anything on his sub but practice his skills.

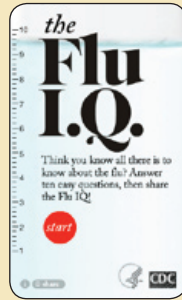

Photo by ET1(SS) L.B. Wolf, USS Maine (SSBN-741)(G)

Test your Flu IQ...

Go to www.cdc.gov/Widgets/#FluIQ and take the Centers for Disease Control's 10 question quiz.

Rotary Bowl

Dr. Gregory Aloia and Greg Quick greet guests, including Princeton Rotary Club President Bill Whittaker (above left) and Rotary President's Council Member Dewey Russell (above right), during a reception at the Chuck Mathena Center in Princeton prior to the Rotary Bowl on Sept. 12.

Way To Go Mountain Lions!

A crowd of Mountain Lions fans fills the stands at Hunnicutt Stadium for the Rotary Bowl. The scoreboard proclaims Concord's victory.

Bulletin Board

*Next Issue
Thursday, Oct. 8
Submission Deadline
Monday, Oct. 5
4:00pm*

Saluting...The Concord University Veterans Office will honor veterans at the Saturday, Sept. 26 home football game with free food at the gate and recognition at half time. Help spread the word!

"Concord Colors" Friday...Wear the school colors on Friday and show your support for all our teams and for CU. Go Mountain Lions!!

Share with students...Applications for the McNair Scholars Program 2009-10 academic year will be accepted through Friday, Oct. 30.

HOMECOMING 2009 SCHEDULE

Thursday, October 15th

- 6:00 p.m. Annual Homecoming Parade, Vermillion Street, Athens
- 6:45 p.m. Bonfire in the Valley.
Rain site: Main Gym, Carter Center

Friday, October 16th

- 8:30 a.m. Homecoming Golf Classic, Pipestem ($75 per person, $300 per foursome) RSVP
- 6:00 p.m. Alumni Homecoming Social, Dinner and Entertainment, Ballroom ($20 per person) RSVP
- 9:00 p.m. Lip Sync Contest, Main Gym
- Note:* Alumni Career Networking Day information available by calling (304) 384-5119

Saturday, October 17th

- 12:00 p.m. All-Greek Luncheon, Ballroom ($5 each) (All Greek Alumni and Actives are Invited) RSVP
- 2:00-4:00 p.m. Alumni Registration & Tailgate
Alumni, Friends and Family Table, Stadium Parking Lot
Reserved Tables for Classes of 1949, 1959, 1969, 1979, 1989, 1999, 2009
Pregame: Introduction of 1959 and 1984 Reunion Football Players, All-Americans
- 4:00 p.m. Kickoff CU vs. SETON HILL

Sunday, October 18th

- 1:00 p.m. Men's Soccer Game, Anderson Field

