Concord University has activities and organizations for every student. From honors and service organizations to recreational or political, there’s plenty of ways to get involved on campus!

If you love sports but aren’t playing on the collegiate level, Concord has several intramural teams. Compete against your peers in softball, flag football, indoor soccer, volleyball and more! If the arts are more your style, we offer plenty of opportunities to perform with choir, band, theatre and chorus.

Stay healthy while you’re here with free membership to our fitness center, plus access to an on-campus Health Center. concord.edu/studenthealth

For our veterans, Concord has a support staff in place to help you transition into college life. Concord is a proud participant of The Yellow Ribbon Program to help with tuition. We also offer veterans a lounge area and parking for Purple Heart recipients. For more information, visit concord.edu/veterans

One meaningful part of the college experience is living on campus. Residence hall living is a chance to meet new people and create lifelong friendships.

In the residence halls, your resident director and advisors are right down the hall if you need anything. The recently renovated North and South Towers Residence Halls offer suite-style rooms that share a bathroom.

Concord’s newly renovated dining hall offers a variety of options for every dietary need, not to mention meal plans to help you save money! There are plans for on-campus and commuter students. The Beasley Student Center also houses Starbucks, Subway and a new concept in rotating cuisine options for students to choose from!
By becoming a Mountain Lion, our student athletes commit to representing Concord University as athletes, ambassadors, and role models to students, staff, faculty, and the entire University Community.

Our coaches, athletic trainers, and administrative staff are committed to providing student athletes with the resources, guidance, and support that will allow them to have a successful college experience.
WHAT HAPPENS NEXT STARTS WITH U.

Choosing a college is the beginning of a new journey in your life, and no matter what your goals are, Concord University is here to help you succeed.
