From the Director's Desk

We are beginning to update the Honors Program website and want your feedback to help make it a useful resource for current and prospective honors students. We recently incorporated a suggestion from HSAC – an Honors Project tab that lists the titles of honors projects along with the student and faculty sponsor's names. I'm proud of the interesting projects you have come up with and the breadth of your interests and am confident your work will inspire new students. Please take a look at the website, accessible from either the Academics or Admissions page, and let me know what suggestions you have.

I want to remind you about a few other events this semester: Professor Sheffler and seven honors students will explore the city of Boston during spring break. We are also planning a "short trip" to Virginia Tech's Moss Arts Center in early April to see a ballet production of Romeo and Juliet. Dr. Anthony Patricia will be speaking about his book, Queering the Shakespeare Film at an upcoming Honors Colloquium. Finally, don't forget our Honors t-shirt design contest. Submit your design ideas for the 2017-18 Honors t-shirt to me by April 1st for a chance to win a $50 gift card.

Iron Jawed Angels

The Honors Program is teaming up with the Women and Gender Studies Committee and SAC in order to bring you Iron Jawed Angels! This is a 2004 historical drama about the American Women's suffrage movement. The showing will be on Thursday March 2nd, 2017 at 6:00PM at Subway Stage. Free popcorn will be provided! This would be a great opportunity for you to get your cultural credit for your enrichment activities!

Student Spotlight: Morgan Elmore

Morgan is a Psychology major and a Math minor, and she lives in Princeton, WV. She serves as a member of HSAC and is a Sophomore here at Concord. Her hobbies include painting, reading, playing The Sims and Nintendo games as well as watching films and TV shows on Netflix. Her favorite movie is The Silence of the Lambs, and her favorite TV shows are Game of Thrones, Breaking Bad, and House of Cards. Fun fact: Morgan has a cat named Seamus who is 8 inches longer than an average cat! She was also Alexander Hamilton for Halloween this past year. Her guilty pleasure is really awful reality TV shows. After completing her degree at Concord, Morgan plans to get a PhD in Clinical Psychology.

March Birthdays

The Honors Program would like to wish a very happy birthday to our Honors students with birthdays this month!

Trip to VT Moss Arts Center

On Sunday April 2nd, the Honors Program will be travelling to Blacksburg to see Southwest Virginia Ballet's production of Romeo and Juliet...and you can go too! Tickets are free to the first 10 students who sign up with Dr. Luff. This is a 2:00 performance, and we will leave Concord around 12:30 on Sunday afternoon. After the performance, we can grab dinner at an ethnic restaurant in Blacksburg and experience another culture's food while we digest the performance.
