I. FOREWORD

The following information is intended as a general statement of “Graduate Policies and Procedures” to assist the Education Graduate Program Coordinator in academic advising of candidates in the advanced program. This information is not intended to be a substitute for the Concord University Academic Catalog which is the authoritative source of information for all graduate candidates. The official version of the Catalog is available at: <http://catalog.concord.edu/>.

II. MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the Educator Preparation Program (EPP) at Concord University is to prepare educators who are competent, intentional, reflective, culturally responsive, leading, and empathic 21st Century Professionals. The EPP strives to provide all teacher candidates at the initial and advanced level with the knowledge, skills, and dispositions necessary to become effective teachers/leaders by offering the highest quality instruction and programs.

The advanced program strives to further develop and enhance the knowledge base of the practicing professional. As candidates progress through the graduate curriculum, the improvement, refinement, and practice of professional knowledge bases, skills, and dispositions are enhanced and refined.

The EPP collaborates with representatives from public schools, professional groups, government, and other programs within the University to prepare educators and to cooperate in the development of educational policies. The EPP also strives for the improvement of education at the local, state, regional, and national levels in that the improvement of schooling results in a more literate and enlightened citizenry. This in turn contributes to the proliferation of democratic values and enhances our position in the global economy.

Concord University was chartered as Concord State Normal School in 1872 for the purpose of preparing teachers for public schools. The name was changed to Concord State Teachers College in 1931. In 1943, the name was changed to Concord College to reflect a transformation of the institution to a liberal arts college. In the summer of 2002, Concord was granted approval for the offering of graduate courses on a limited basis. Full approval of the Master of Education Graduate Program was granted in August, 2003. The development of a graduate program was in alignment with the overall mission to serve southern West Virginia and to provide a quality program for the practicing professionals in the region. In 2004, the name was changed to Concord University. In spring 2012, Concord University was approved to offer the Master of Arts in Education that leads to initial certification for individuals holding a baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited institution in an approved content area as indicated in West Virginia Policy 5100. Additionally, a new content area specialization, Special Education (Multi-categorical), was added to the Master of Education Program in spring 2012.

The preparation of teachers continues to play a significant role at Concord University as approximately twenty-five percent of the candidates who graduate each year earn degrees in education. This history of commitment to teacher education combined with a current mission statement that emphasizes high quality instruction creates a context of high expectations for the teacher education programs at Concord University. In response to that challenge, the EPP began an extensive effort at program articulation and development. This effort included faculty, candidates, administration, and public school professionals who came together in a spirit of collaboration to read, discuss, and write about their vision of the ideal teacher education program for Concord University.

The Teacher Education programs offers opportunities for candidates to obtain both a bachelor and master's degree in education. We pride ourselves on preparing our candidates to be 21st Century Professionals.

OVERVIEW OF THE M.Ed. Program

The M.Ed. Program is a 36-hour program specifically designed for licensed or license eligible teachers. * The program consists of a 15-hour Professional Education core and a 21-hour Content Specialization.

Additionally, graduate candidates may choose to enroll in graduate coursework for re-certification, to provide greater specialization within one's field, or to assist in professional advancement.

It is recommended that students purchase and become familiar with an APA citation manual. APA formatting and referencing will be required in ALL courses.

All candidates will be required to purchase a LiveText account. For information about LiveText, go to <https://www.livetext.com/> and select "PURCHASE/REGISTER" from the menu on the top of the page.

Or with the consent of the Education Graduate Program Coordinator. However, enrolling in graduate courses without an Education degree will not lead to initial or advanced certification.*

III. ADMISSION TO THE M.ED. PROGRAM

Admission is based on a baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited college or university, the grade point average, the scores on required examinations, and other information found on the application form.

A student may apply to the graduate program and take nine hours of courses before all requirements are met. However, an application and fee, transcripts, and a copy of the professional licensure are necessary for pre-admission. Failure to complete all admission requirements after nine hours of coursework may result in administrative withdrawal from the courses or credit may not be applied toward graduation in the degree program.

An official copy of your undergraduate transcript showing your degree and the date on which it was granted must be mailed directly from your undergraduate college or university to the Office of Admissions or accessed directly from a secure website by the Concord University Registrar. Concord alumni do not need to submit a transcript. Alumni transcripts are located in the Registrar's office. However, if you have attended more than one college or university, an official transcript must be sent from that institution to the Office of Admissions in a sealed envelope or via a secure website. A hand delivered transcript is not acceptable.

Decisions on applications for admission to the M.Ed. program shall be based upon a careful consideration of the applicant's total record including GPA, Graduate Record Examination (GRE) or Miller Analogies Test (MAT) scores, Grit Scale self-assessment, and letters of recommendation.

All requirements must be met before full acceptance into a program is granted as follows:

- Hold a baccalaureate degree with a minimum 2.5 GPA from a regionally accredited institution,
- Be licensed or license eligible to teach,
- Submit a completed Graduate Application for the M.Ed. Program and the application fee,
- Provide a copy of professional licensure,
- Provide official transcripts for all undergraduate and graduate classes (with the exception of Concord University)
- Provide 2 letters of recommendation from individuals who have supervised, evaluated, or observed the applicant in a classroom setting,
- Submit a completed Grit Scale self-assessment, and
- Provide official Graduate Record Examination (GRE) general test or Miller Analogies Test (MAT) test scores.

(Note: The GRE/MAT scores should reflect the 50th percentile or above. GRE scores must be a combined scaled score for verbal (150) and quantitative (149) of at least 150 and an analytical writing score of 3.5; or a score of 389 is required on the MAT.)

V. POLICIES/PROCEDURES

a. Academic dishonesty:

Academic dishonesty is morally unacceptable as well as destructive to the learning and teaching atmosphere. Academic dishonesty includes the giving or receiving of improper help on examinations or assignments, falsifying documents, and plagiarism (the act of stealing and using, as one's own, the ideas or the expression of the ideas of another). Such dishonesty can lead to a variety of penalties— including but not limited to failure of assignment, failure of course, loss of institutional privileges, and dismissal from the University. A failing course grade as a result of academic dishonesty will be recorded as an “F” on the grade sheet and the instructor will inform, in writing, the Education Graduate Program Coordinator and the Vice President and Academic Dean who notifies, in writing, the Registrar's Office and the candidate. Course grades affected by academic dishonesty do not enjoy the privilege of the forgiveness rule or the privilege of dropping the course with a grade of W (see <http://catalog.concord.edu/content.php?catoid=7&navoid=402&hl=academic+dishonesty&returnto=search>). Any recommendation by the instructor beyond an “F” in the course must be submitted, in writing, to the candidate, to the Graduate Education Coordinator, and to the Vice President and Academic Dean for transmittal to the Judicial Steering Committee who will then initiate judicial procedure. Any failing course grade or dismissal that results solely from academic dishonesty will be identified as such on the candidate's transcript.

b. Academic probation:

Candidates falling below the required 3.0 GPA will be placed on academic probation during the next semester in which they are enrolled as an active student. If candidates fail to maintain a 3.0 GPA during the next semester of enrollment, they will be permanently dismissed from the program. Under an extreme case, if a candidate would make a “D” in a course, the candidate would continue in the program on probationary basis until the course was completed with a “B” or higher. The candidate would be expected to take the course the next time it was offered in rotation. A grade of “C” or better is required in ALL graduate courses.

c. Add/drop classes:

To add or drop a class, contact the Division of Education Graduate Office at 384-6223 with your request. If you are dropping all of your courses for that term, an online withdrawal form <https://apps.concord.edu/forms/view.php?id=80318> is required. If you are formally withdrawing from the University, you must contact the Center of Academic and Career Development at 304-384-6298.

d. Admissions Examinations:

The Graduate Record Exam (GRE) or the Miller Analogy Test (MAT) is required for full admission into the program. GRE scores are those issued by ETS® and sent directly to approved institutions and organizations designated by the test takers. To register for the exam, access a complete schedule of test dates, find a testing center near you, or access preparation materials, visit <https://www.ets.org/gre>.

The most current MAT information can be found at http://www.pearsonassessments.com/postsecondaryeducation/graduate_admissions/mat.html. Students must call the testing center for specific information about how to apply, directions, and fees.

Waiver of Admissions Examinations: GRE/MAT scores are not required for admission to the 24 credit-hour Reading Specialist Certificate ONLY Program, the 18 credit-hour Educational Leadership and Supervision Certificate ONLY Program, or the 24 credit-hour Special Education Certificate ONLY Program.

e. Advising:

The Education Graduate Coordinator is the acting advisor for all M.Ed. graduate candidates. If any candidate wishes to enroll in a course-load of more than nine credit-hours, prior approval must be obtained by the Education Graduate Coordinator.

f. Blackboard

The M.Ed. Program uses the Blackboard e-Education platform. The username is the same as your MyCU account. Your password is defaulted to your CU ID number (starting with 774). If you do not know this information, it can be found securely online by going to <https://accounts.concord.edu/>.

It is the responsibility of the candidate to keep up with assignments, assessments, and modules as designated within course instructor's syllabi. The Blackboard platform can be accessed at <https://elearn.concord.edu:8443/>.

g. Disclaimer:

Concord University admits students of any race, color, sex, religion, and national or Ethnic origin, and does not discriminate on the basis of disability in the recruitment and admission of students, the recruitment and employment of faculty and staff, and the operation of its programs and activities, as specified in federal and state laws and regulations.

h. Promise for Teaching/Leadership:

The Division of Education is using the Grit Scale (Duckworth, A.L., Peterson, C., Matthews, M.D., & Kelly, D.R., 2007) as an assessment of candidates' "promise for teaching and or/leadership" at admission to the M.Ed. program and again during the capstone course (EDEL 560, RDNG 560, and SPED 560). This is a self-assessment that has no "right" or "wrong" answers. Candidates are asked to respond to each item as honestly as possible.

i. Disruptive Behavior:

Disruptive behavior in the classroom/online will not be tolerated. If student conduct makes it difficult to continue the class satisfactorily, the instructor may warn the candidate of this fact. If objectionable conduct continues, the instructor may dismiss the candidate from the course with written notification of this action to the Education Graduate Coordinator and the Vice President and Academic Dean.

j. Division of Education Graduate Committee:

The graduate committee for the M.Ed. is composed of the Education Graduate Coordinator and representatives from each content specialization in the Division of Education. Decisions made by the Education Graduate Committee are submitted to the University Director of Graduate Studies.

k. E-mail:

m. GPA:

Graduate candidates must maintain an overall GPA of 3.0 or better throughout the program. Candidates whose GPA falls below a 3.0 will be placed on academic probation. In order to graduate from the M. Ed. Program an overall 3.0 GPA is required. Candidates who are placed on academic probation for two consecutive semesters will be removed from the graduate program due to academic deficiency. In addition, candidates must earn the minimum grade of “C” to successfully complete a course.

Graduate candidates must apply for graduation by downloading and submitting a Graduation Application at <https://apps.concord.edu/forms/view.php?id=147474>. A graduation fee of $50 must be paid to the business office, and the graduation gown is to be ordered at the Concord University bookstore. Once the business office and bookstore have signed the application for graduation, it is to be submitted to the Registrar’s Office. A graduation audit will then be completed to ensure that all requirements for graduation have been met. Graduation requirements include completion of the 36 hour program with a 3.0 GPA within five years.

Hooding and Commencement:

All master’s candidates will be expected to participate in the hooding ceremony during commencement. The graduating candidate will be hooded by the Education Graduate Coordinator and the CU Director of Graduate Studies.

o. Letters of acceptance:

After submission of an application and required materials, an applicant will be considered for admission to the M.Ed. program. Applicants will receive a letter of informing them of the admissions decision and/or identifying any additional admission requirements which need to be submitted in order to be unconditionally admitted to the program. Once all admission requirements are met, applicants will receive a letter of unconditional acceptance to the Master of Education program. Applicants who are conditionally admitted may take up-to nine credit-hours of course work before unconditional admission to the program is required.

p. Letters of recommendation:

Graduate candidates must submit two letters of recommendation for admission to the Master of Education Program. One letter must be provided by an individual who has supervised, evaluated, or observed the candidate in the classroom setting.
