The Bachelor of Arts in English—Creative Writing Emphasis degree provides students with a variety of classes and workshops on creative writing, as well as a solid basis in literature, English language, and linguistics. Through reading and writing, students will become close and critical readers of their world and effective communicators.

MILESTONE COURSES

Courses marked as Milestone

Courses are crucial for staying on track to complete your degree in four years. Take them in the recommended semester to stay on track! If you see a recommended minimum grade, this is the grade you need to earn to have the best chance for success in this degree! Grades marked with an asterisk are required to pass.

LANDMARKS

Points where you see a landmark icon on the four-year plan indicate you have reached a point of action outside regular coursework! See the Helpful Hints for information on each landmark.

Helpful Hints

- This four-year plan assumes you begin your degree in the Fall semester. Courses in bold are only offered during the semester shown.
- This degree requires two semesters of the same foreign language. These can be used to substitute for other Gen Ed courses (see the Academic Catalog), and this plan assumes you will. It is recommended you take these early.
- It is recommended that you take your lab science Gen Ed early.
- ENGL 301 is prerequisite (or co-requisite) to all upper-level English courses. At the end of this semester, you will take your Qualifying Exam and LLKSE. For more details see your advisor.
