While Concord was first founded as a state school in 1872, The Carillon bell tower wasn't added to "The Campus Beautiful" until 1996.

STUDENT LIFE

GETTING INVOLVED Starts with YOU.

Concord University has activities and organizations for every student. From honors and service organizations to recreational or political, there's plenty of ways to get involved on campus!

If you love sports but aren't playing on the collegiate level, Concord has several intramural teams. Compete against your peers in softball, flag football, indoor soccer, volleyball, and more! If the arts are more your style, we offer plenty of opportunities to perform with choir, band, theatre, and chorus.

Stay healthy while you're here with free membership to our fitness center, plus access to an on-campus Health Center. CONCORD.EDU/STUDENTHEALTH

For our veterans, Concord has a support staff in place to help you transition into college life. Concord is a proud participant of The Yellow Ribbon Program to help with tuition. We also offer veterans a lounge area and parking for Purple Heart recipients.

HOUSING & DINING

CREATING YOUR OWN SPACE Starts with YOU

One meaningful part of the college experience is living on campus. Residence hall living is a chance to meet new people and create lifelong friendships.

In the residence halls, your resident director and advisors are right down the hall if you need anything. The recently renovated North and South Towers Residence Halls offer suite-style rooms that share a bathroom.

Concord's newly renovated dining hall offers a variety of options for every dietary need, not to mention meal plans to help you save money! There are plans for on-campus and commuter students. In addition to the main cafeteria, The Beasley Student Center also houses Starbucks, Subway and a new concept in rotating cuisine options for students to choose from!

CONCORD.EDU/HOUSING

WHY should you live on campus?

Research demonstrates that living in the residence halls provides students with a unique experience that fosters success during college years.

Residential students are more likely to graduate from college and generally feel more connected.

DID YOU KNOW?

Concord's variety of dining options include waffles with the CU logo!

ATHLETICS
