* Friday is designated as a final exam make-up day and will be utilized only in the event that a regularly scheduled final examination cannot be administered due to inclement weather, emergency conditions, or an official campus closure. Use of the make-up day is limited to courses whose scheduled final exam was disrupted and may not be used to reschedule exams for convenience or preference. Faculty will be notified if the make-up day is activated and should plan accordingly.

Music Jury examinations are scheduled individually by the department of music.

In Inclement Weather situations, Final Exams will begin two hours later. Exams starting after 6:00pm will be moved to the Final Exam Make Up Day.

FINAL EXAMS FOR ONLINE CLASSES MUST BE HELD DURING THE SCHEDULED EXAM WEEK.

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE FACULTY:

Any examination for which this schedule does not provide, or any departure from it, must be approved in advance by the Provost on the request of the instructor made through the Department Chair and College Dean. Please note that the final exam period is considered when calculating the Carnegie credit hours listed for each course, the observance of which is a requirement of our HLC accreditation; therefore, each course should be able in some way to account for the appropriate time allotted. Final Projects or alternative exams, such as take-home exams, are acceptable, as long as they are approved in advance. Faculty members should also carefully note the deadlines for submission of grades.
