Messages from Administration

Message from the President

Campus safety is one of my top priorities, as nothing is more important than ensuring that our students, faculty, staff, and visitors feel secure and supported while they are here at Concord University. A safe campus creates the foundation for a vibrant learning environment, where students can focus fully on their studies, engage deeply in transformational experiences, and prepare to live out our mission to Come to Learn, Go to Serve. I am deeply appreciative of the dedication and hard work of our safety personnel, faculty, staff, and students who contribute each day to fostering a secure and welcoming community. Your vigilance, care, and dedication make a tremendous difference, and together we are building the kind of environment where Concord students can truly thrive.

- Dr. Bethany Meighen, President

Message from the Dean of Students

At Concord University, we are committed to the safety and well-being of our students. As the Dean of Students, I am proud to share that the Student Affairs Team is dedicated to fostering an environment where students can both live and learn securely. We recognize that a safe campus is essential to academic success, personal growth, and community engagement.

To uphold this commitment, our staff undergoes extensive training to respond effectively to a wide range of emergencies. More importantly, we emphasize proactive strategies designed to anticipate and address potential concerns before they arise. This approach reflects our dedication not only to preparedness but also to prevention, ensuring that our students have the support, resources, and environment they need to thrive.

We work closely with Concord University Police and other campus partners to ensure that our community remains a safe and supportive place to study, grow, and succeed. Together, we strive to foster a culture of safety and care that empowers our students to focus on what matters most, their education and personal development.

-Anna Hardy, Chief Student Affairs Officer & Dean of Students

Message from the Chief of Police

Concord University has always given the highest priority to the safety and security of our students and other community members. This tradition continues with the on-going support of well-qualified personnel from various departments throughout our campus. We hope that the information in this brochure will be beneficial to you in helping us continue to provide a safe and secure environment for all who use the Concord campus.

- Mark Stella, Chief of Police and Director of Public Safety

Message from the Chief Risk Management Officer & Title IX Coordinator

At Concord University, the safety and security of our community are at the heart of everything we do. We want every student, employee, visitor, and community member to feel welcomed, valued, and supported. When concerns are raised, our office is committed to responding promptly, treating all parties with fairness and respect, and ensuring that every report is handled with care. By working together and looking out for one another, we can continue to foster a campus environment built on trust, accountability, and mutual respect.

Likewise, caring for the well-being of our community is our top priority. We are dedicated to creating a safe, secure, and welcoming environment where students, employees, visitors, and community members can thrive. Risk management is more than policies and procedures—it's about working together to prevent harm, respond effectively when challenges arise, and support one another in maintaining a strong and resilient campus. Your awareness, participation, and commitment to safety play a vital role in helping us protect and strengthen our community.

- Chelsey M. Rowe, JD, Chief Risk Management Officer & Title IX Coordinator

Annual Security Report

What is The Clery Act?

This report is prepared in compliance with The Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act ("The Clery Act").

The Clery Act, found in section 485(f) of the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended (HEA), requires Institutions of Higher Education (IHEs) that participate in the Title IV HEA federal student financial assistance programs to disclose campus crime statistics and security information. The implementing regulations for the Clery Act are found in 34 C.F.R. Sections 668.14(c)(2)(i), 41(e), 46, and 49. In March 2013, the Clery Act was amended by the Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act of 2013 (VAWA). VAWA expanded the scope of the Act and requires IHEs to take additional steps to provide information to students and employees.

In addition, IHEs must include in their annual security report, a statement of policy regarding the institution's emergency response and evacuation procedures. This requirement complements and supports the importance of clearly delineating the responsibilities of individuals involved during an emergency response, the need to develop and implement notification and communication strategies to share information with the campus community, the imperative of testing and practicing a higher ed EOP, and the importance of keeping the community informed of current policies and procedures.

Preparation of the Annual Security Report

This report is prepared by the Office of Public Safety in conjunction with the Chief Risk Management Officer, using information maintained by other University Offices such as the Office of Student Affairs, Housing and Residence Life, Title IX, the Physical Plant, and other campus resources along with information provided by the Athens Police Department, Athens Volunteer Fire Department, and other local agencies. Each of these offices or entities provides up to date crime and/or fire safety related information for reporting purposes.

This report provides statistics for the past three years (2022, 2023, 2024) concerning reported crimes that occurred on the Concord University campus, on public property within or immediately adjacent to the campus, and in or on non-campus buildings or property that the University owns or controls. The Concord University Police Department's patrol zone encompasses all of our Clery geography but also intersects with the Athen's Police Department patrol zone located on Vermillion Street at the campus entrance, along East Broadway Street along the backside of campus, and Beckett Hill Road that runs behind Callaghan Stadium.

This report also includes additional information related to campus security, including sexual assault policies, alcohol and drug policies, and student conduct policies.

Concord University ("Concord" or "CU") distributes a notice of the availability of this Annual Report by October 1st of each year to every member of the campus community. Anyone, including prospective students and employees, may obtain a copy of this report by visiting the University website at https://www.concord.edu/student-life/office-of-public-safety/right-to-know or emailing cupd@concord.edu. You can also call the Office of Public Safety's non-emergency number at (304) 384-5357.

Equal Employment Opportunity

Concord University provides equal employment opportunities to all employees and applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex (including pregnancy, gender identity, and sexual orientation) national origin, age (40 or older), disability or genetic information (family history) and also military or veteran status, marital status, citizenship, and protected activity (i.e., opposition to prohibited discrimination or participation in the complaint process) or other status explicitly defined as protected under applicable state and federal law.

Pursuant to the Concord University Board of Governors Policy CU-HR-47, Equal employment opportunity applies to all terms and conditions of employment, including hiring, placement, workplace accommodations for religious beliefs or disability, promotion, termination, layoff, transfer, leave of absence, compensation, and training.

The University expressly prohibits any form of unlawful employee harassment or discrimination based on any of the characteristics mentioned above. Improper interference with the ability of other employees to perform their expected job duties will not be tolerated.

Any employees with questions or concerns about equal employment opportunities at Concord are encouraged to bring these issues to the attention of the Office of Human Resources, or if sex-based questions or concerns, to the Title IX Coordinator.

The University will not permit any form of retaliation against individuals who raise issues of equal employment opportunity. If an employee feels he or she has been subjected to any such retaliation, he or she should bring it to the attention the Office of Human Resources or if sex related retaliation, to the Title IX Coordinator.

Retaliation means adverse conduct taken because an individual reported an actual or perceived violation of EEO or Nondiscrimination and Anti-Harassment policy, opposed practices prohibited by this policy, or participated in the reporting and investigation process described below. "Adverse conduct" includes but is not limited to:

- (1) shunning and avoiding an individual who reports harassment, discrimination or retaliation;
- (2) express or implied threats or intimidation intended to prevent an individual from reporting harassment, discrimination or retaliation; or
- (3) denying employment benefits because an applicant or employee reported harassment, discrimination or retaliation or participated in the reporting and investigation process.

University employees engaging in any form of illegal discrimination or harassment shall be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

The Chief Human Resources Officer (or designee) is the Equal Opportunity Officer is responsible for coordinating and overseeing all equal opportunity and affirmative action related matters.

If an employee believes that the University has failed to properly follow its equal opportunity / affirmative action policy or that discrimination has occurred, the employee is requested to present the complaint to the Office of Human Resources, which shall complete an investigation of the complaint in a timely manner and render a report, typically within 20 working days, after completing the investigation.

The employee may also file a grievance regarding the issue, which will be processed through the grievance procedures established by the West Virginia Public Employees Grievance Board.

Job Accommodations

Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and Reasonable Accommodation

To ensure equal employment opportunities to qualified individuals with a disability, Concord University will make reasonable accommodations for the known disability of an otherwise qualified individual, unless undue hardship on the operation of the institution would result.

Reasonable accommodations are modifications or adjustments to a job, the work environment, or the way things usually are done that enables a qualified individual with a disability to enjoy an equal employment opportunity. An equal employment opportunity means an opportunity to attain the same level of performance or to enjoy equal benefits and privileges of employment as are available to an average similarly situated employee without a disability.

The American Disabilities Act (ADA) requires employers to make reasonable accommodations in three aspects of employment:

- 1. to ensure equal opportunity in the application process,
- 2. to enable a qualified individual with a disability to perform the essential functions of a job, and
- 3. to enable an employee with a disability to enjoy equal benefits and privileges of employment.

Examples of reasonable accommodations include making existing facilities accessible; job restructuring; part-time or modified work schedules; acquiring or modifying equipment; changing tests, training materials, or policies; providing qualified readers or interpreters; and reassignment to a vacant position.

If you believe that you have a need for a job accommodation, please contact the Office of Human Resources.

Title IX Program

The Office of Student Affairs is responsible for overseeing and administering CU's Title IX Program. Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 is a federal law that protects students, employees, and third parties (such as vendors, parents, etc.) from sex discrimination.

Complainants are strongly encouraged to promptly report any incidents of sexual harassment, sexual assault, or other forms of sex or gender-based discrimination to the Title IX Coordinator so that the University may take appropriate action. Concord University is committed to providing a safe and equitable educational environment and will implement timely remedies designed to stop prohibited conduct, prevent its recurrence, and address its effects. Once a formal complaint is submitted in writing, the University initiates its grievance process, which includes a fair and impartial investigation conducted by trained officials. CU strives to complete investigations within a reasonable timeframe while ensuring due process for both parties. Throughout the process, both the complainant and respondent are entitled to the presence of an advisor of their choice, access to relevant information, and equal opportunity to present evidence and witnesses. At the conclusion of the investigation and hearing, both parties will be notified simultaneously and in writing of the findings and any sanctions imposed. Possible outcomes for a respondent found responsible for a Title IX violation may include suspension, expulsion, or other appropriate disciplinary measures. Complainants may also withdraw their complaint at any point prior to the hearing by notifying the Title IX Coordinator in writing. The parties may also utilize the informal resolution process so long as both parties voluntarily elect to do so. Supportive measures are offered to both parties throughout the resolution process. Please note: the campus reserves the right to do an emergency removal of a student if the student poses an immediate threat to the safety or welfare of another student or the campus at large.

Upon a finding of a Title IX violation by an employee, that employee may be subject to termination, suspension, or other disciplinary action. Upon a finding of a Title IX violation by a third party, the university may immediately terminate any contractual relationship, access to the campus, and relationship with the third party. All of these actions for students, third parties, and employees are in addition to notifying university police for a criminal investigation if there is a violation of West Virginia law.

To the extent possible, the University will keep the complaint and investigation private. Retaliation, or engaging in an adverse action against a person who has filed a Title IX complaint or participated in the resolution process, is strictly prohibited. Any individual within the university community who engages in retaliation shall be subject to disciplinary action.

Any victims of sexual assault or sexual harassment should contact the Concord University Police Department to report the incident. If you are in immediate danger or your safety is as risk, dial 911. Local dispatch will route the call to our officers who work 24/7. Anyone calling 911 while on campus should provide the 911 Dispatcher with the following information to help our officers address the situation expeditiously: building you are located in, floor of building, room number, outdoor location such as between two buildings or in a parking lot, other information to describe the surroundings. Victims of sexual discrimination, harassment, and/or assault may also contact the Title IX Coordinator, Chelsey M. Rowe, by phone at (304) 384-5175 or by email at cmrowe@concord.edu or Deputy Title IX Coordinator, Andrea Sullivan, by phone at (304) 384-5195 or by email at asullivan@concord.edu. Ms. Rowe is located in Marsh Hall (Administration Building), 3rd Floor, Room 324. Mrs. Sullivan is located in the Upward Bound House (a/k/a Marsh House) across from campus on First Avenue. The Title IX webpage can be found at: https://www.concord.edu/student-life/title-ix.

You may also contact the Office of Civil Rights by calling 1 (800) 421-3481 or by visiting the OCR website which provides instructions for how to file a complaint at https://www.ed.gov/about/ed-offices/ocr/know-your-rights?src=ft.tml.

Professional Counseling services are offered, at no cost or need for insurance, to students through the University's Counseling Center, located on the 3rd floor of the Jean & Jerry Beasley Student Center. It is open Monday through Friday from 8:00 AM to 4:00 PM. To make an appointment, students can call (304) 384-5290 or email Counseling@concord.edu. External services and resources are available through a number of different mediums, all of which can be found on the webpage: https://www.concord.edu/student-life/student-health-wellness/counseling-center.

ULifeline is offered through the Counseling Center; ULifeline has many resources to assist students who may be struggling, including a self-evaluation tool, a 24-hour Hotline, Lifeline Chat, Crisis Text Line, Veterans Crisis Line, and more. 24 Hour Toll Free Hotline 1-800-273-8255; or text Start to 741-741.

REPORTING CRIMES & OTHER EMERGENCIES

Concord University provides multiple avenues for faculty, staff, students, volunteers, campus community members, and visitors to report crimes, serious incidents, and other emergencies to the appropriate Concord University officials. Regardless of the method or location of the report, it is essential to promptly notify the University Police at (304) 384-5357, the non-emergency number. For all emergencies, please dial 911. Dispatch will promptly contact our 24/7 law enforcement officers. Timely reporting helps ensure the safety of the entire Concord community by enabling effective investigations, appropriate follow-up actions, and the issuance of crime alerts or emergency notifications when necessary.

Voluntary & Confidential Reporting

When crimes or serious incidents go unreported, the University's ability to protect the community and prevent future harm is significantly reduced. Prompt reporting to University Police allows for timely investigations, the identification of potential threats, and the implementation of measures that help safeguard others from becoming victims. While the University does not have procedures for voluntary, anonymous reporting, should such a report come to the attention of a University official, the University will do its best to ascertain the legitimacy of the report. However, such reports often limit our ability to gather critical details, follow up effectively, and provide direct assistance to those affected. For this reason, the campus community members are strongly encouraged to report incidents directly to University Police and to actively participate in crime prevention efforts as designated by the institution. The safety and security of the University community depends on the collective responsibility of all members to engage in these initiatives.

Confidential & Responsible Employees

In compliance with Federal requirements, the University must designate "responsible employees" or those who are mandated to report to the Title IX Coordinator or a University Official regarding sexual discrimination, harassment, and assault. As such the University designates that all employees (except those designated as confidential employees) must report known or suspected instances of sexual discrimination, harassment, and assault to the Title IX Coordinator.

Confidential Employees acting within the scope of their licensure are not required to report crimes for inclusion in this report. They are not required to report to the Title IX Coordinator or Police Department unless a student is threatening to harm someone or harm themselves.

Professional and Pastoral counselors acting within the scope of their professional license are not considered Campus Security Authorities (CSAs) and are not required to report crimes for inclusion in this report. However, they are encouraged to share information about the various resource, support, and reporting options on campus and within the local community.

The University does not have procedures that encourage pastoral and professional counselors, at their discretion, to inform those they counsel to report crimes on a voluntary, confidential manner for the purposes of collecting crime statistics. As previously disclosed, the University does not have procedures for voluntary, confidential reporting.

Reporting to University Police

We encourage all members of the Concord campus community to report all crimes and other emergencies to University Police in a timely manner. For emergencies, you may contact the University Police by dialing 911 that connects the caller to the Mercer County Dispatch Center. They will dispatch the appropriate officer to your location. University Police are available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, year round. For non-emergencies, members of the campus community should dial (304) 384-5357 for assistance. The Concord University Police Department, also known as the "Office of Public Safety," is located on the Rahall Technology Center on East Broadway Street. Though there are many resources available, University Police should be notified of any crime, whether or not an investigation continues, to assure the University can address any and all security concerns and inform the community if there is a significant threat to the University and / or local community.

Reporting to Other Campus Security Authorities

The University recognizes that some community members may prefer to report to other individuals or University Officials. The Clery Act recognizes certain University officials and offices as "Campus Security Authorities (CSA)."

The Act defines these individuals as an "official of an institution who has significant responsibility for student and campus activities, including, but not limited to, student housing, student discipline and campus judicial proceedings. An official is defined as any person who has the authority and the duty to take action or respond to particular issues on behalf of the institution."

The Campus Security Authorities are as follows:

- Student Conduct Officer: Anna Hardy, Dean of Students & Chief Student Affairs Officer
- Housing Fire Safety Officer: Khalilah Workfield, Director of Residence Life
- Title IX Coordinator: Chelsey Rowe, Chief Risk Management Officer
- Safety & Security: Chief Mark Stella, Director of the Office of Public Safety

The University does not have any off-campus locations of student organizations officially recognized by the University. Therefore, the institution does not have a method for monitoring and recording, through local police, criminal activity by students at said locations. The University does have a sorority with an owned building (not a residential building) that sits directly adjacent to campus property. The Campus Police have jurisdiction to address matters reported at this location as well as the local Athens Police Department.

CONCORD UNIVERSITY POLICE DEPARTMENT

Staffing, Role, Authority, & Training

Concord University Police Officers protect and serve the University 365 days a year on a 24 hour basis. The Police department is comprised of:

- 5 sworn Law Enforcement Officers
- 1 administrative assistant
- 2 Campus Security Officers

Concord University police officers receive training at the West Virginia State Police Academy or equivalent venue. Additional education occurs through ongoing in-service and specialized training programs, including the ability to obtain undergraduate or graduate level degrees. Our university police and security personnel are carefully selected, well trained, and committed to working with the Concord University community to provide a safe environment.

The Concord University Public Safety Department receives its authority pursuant to W. Va. Code § 18B-4-5. All campus police officers have and may exercise, all powers and authority; and shall be subject to all the requirements and responsibilities of a law enforcement officer within the state of West Virginia. Concord University police officers are authorized to make arrests for criminal offenses in or upon lands or structures owned, used, or occupied by the institution, or in places where University business is conducted. This authority extends beyond the confines of the campus as determined by local special police status or deputy sheriffs' authority or by previous court decisions (mutual aid).

The Concord University Police Department serves the campus and has authority to address instances taking place on streets, roadways, and buildings immediately adjacent to campus property. This is known as mutual aid through understandings with the Mercer County Sheriff's Office and the local Athens Police Department.

SECURITY OF AND ACCESS TO UNIVERSITY FACILITIES

Although Concord University is a public campus that allows public access to certain buildings and events, this presents unique challenges in maintaining safety and security. There are general rules in place meant to prevent unauthorized access to university buildings and property.

The University's Administrative Offices inside and across multiple buildings are open Monday through Friday from 8:00 AM to 4:00 PM and typically close promptly at 4:00 PM. Buildings that contain academic spaces are opened earlier and are closed later, depending on the need of the building due to night classes or early morning events. Access to individual classrooms is handled on a pre-scheduled basis, then a first come first service basis. Many activities and events are held in University facilities across campus and are open to the public. Other facilities such as the bookstore, library, and fitness center are likewise open to the public. Only those who have demonstrated a need are issued keys to a particular building or office.

Special Considerations for Residence Hall Access

Only Concord students and their invited guests are allowed in the living areas of the residence halls. All others are considered intruders, and residents are urged to report their presence to the Public Safety Office, on duty RA or RD, or on-duty security officer immediately. It is the resident's responsibility to ensure their guest is familiar with University rules and policies. Guests are not permitted to have access keys and must be escorted throughout the residence halls at all times. There is one male-only dorm, one female-only dorm, and one dorm that is segmented by floors specific to male and female.

Each Residence Hall Main Desk is open from 5:30 PM to 12:00 AM and is located in the main entry point of each building. The Office of Housing and Residence Life is open from Monday through Friday, 8:00 AM to 4:00 PM, and is located in the Student Center, 2nd floor, Room 201. Security Officers are on duty, from 12:00 AM to 8:00 AM, 7 days a week. While on duty, the Security Officers will walk around the interior and exterior of the buildings to ensure doors are locked and surveillance is consistent and continuous. If the Security Officer is unable to leave his desk, he is able to monitor all common areas through a security monitoring system.

The Residence halls are locked from midnight to 6:00 AM every day, exceptions made for move in days annually. If coming in the building after midnight, the student must show their student ID for verification. If a student has an overnight guest, the guest must be checked in before midnight and will not be permitted entry if not previously signed in.

During the summer months and winter break period, the residential buildings not in use are locked 24/7, while the buildings in use follow the pre-described operating hours depending on the type of group using the facility. Guests are issued a key code for exterior entry depending on the building used.

Residence Life Staff, including one Resident Director who covers the entire campus and one or more RAs working in each building, are on duty and available from 4:00 pm to 8:00 am daily. The RA on duty can be found at the front desk of his or her residence hall from 5:30 pm-12:00 am each night. RD duty responsibilities include coordination and support for the RA staff. This is done, in part, by completing nightly campus-wide walking tours. The RA on duty is available to answer questions, maintain building safety, and oversee other services. To ensure student safety, the RA on duty also makes specific building rounds in the residence hall and is required to sleep/remain in the facility throughout the night in case of any emergency. All Residence Life Staff members who are on duty remain in direct communication with Public Safety personnel via their non-emergency number or be calling 911 in the event of an emergency as dispatch will connect with the Campus Law Enforcement.

Resident Hall Staff Members are responsible for checking and securing doors, when needed. Most resident hall exterior doors are equipped with locks and with crash bars to ensure a quick emergency exit. All dorm rooms are equipped with individualized locks. Student are encouraged to lock their doors and windows for security purposes.

Security Considerations in the Maintenance of Campus Facilities

Concord University is committed to campus safety and security in all aspects of campus life, including maintenance. The upkeep of university buildings and property falls to the Director of Facilities and the Physical Plant along with the Office of Housing and Residence Life.

The Concord University Office of Public Safety, in cooperation with Physical Plant employees and Housing and Residence Life staff, conduct frequent security surveys, lighting surveys, and inspections of electronic security systems in an ongoing effort to examine the need for modification and to elevate the level of campus protection. Channels of internal communications exist to facilitate the repair or improvement of security systems on campus. Members of the physical plant recognize the importance of responding promptly to requests that involve safety and/or security issues.

The Physical Plant ensures that all lights in the parking lots and across campus are illuminated for safe travel, all side walks are free of debris, and all parking lots are safety to traverse both during the day and during the night. Snow removal crews work diligently during the winter to ensure all walkways, roads, parking lots, and locations of ingress/egress are free and clear of snow and ice.

All motor vehicles belonging to or operated by faculty, full-time or part-time students, or staff, parked on the campus of Concord University AT ANY TIME, must be registered with the University Police. Registration normally will be accomplished at the beginning of each academic year on regular registration days and/or during the first three days of classes. All third party contractors working for the University must also work to facilitate vehicle registration and parking passes for all their employees.

Designated Campus Maps are distributed across campus and available on the website.

TIMELY WARNINGS

In an effort to provide timely notice to the campus community in the event of a Clery Act crime that may pose a serious or ongoing threat to members of the community, the University issues a "CU Alert." The University Police will generally issue CU Alerts for the following crimes: arson; aggravated assault; criminal homicide; robbery; burglary; sexual assaults; and hate crimes. Other University officials, including the Chief Risk Management Officer or Office of the President, may issues CU Alerts for campus closures, inclement weather alerts, and other safety related alerts as needed.

Police will post these warnings through a variety of ways, including but not limited to e-mails, alert system, local news media (including radio and TV), and webpage banners along the main Website page: www.concord.edu. The University also has the ability to send text message alerts to individuals who register their cell phone numbers into the Omnilert System. Text messaging can be a very effective way to send important information to the campus community. All students, faculty, and staff are automatically enrolled for email alerts. You may configure voice and/or SMS alerts as additional alert mechanisms. Visit www.concord.edu/cualerts to configure your alert preferences. To register for text or voice alerts or personalize your alert options, please go to the website > Student Life > Office of Public Safety > Alert Systems.

By registering your mobile phone number, you will receive an CU ALERT text message when you need to be notified of a campus emergency, serious incident, or closure/delayed opening. Community members are encouraged to check the Concord University homepage for updates regarding serious events that affect campus.

The purpose of a CU Alert is to notify the campus community of a serious incident and to provide information that may enable community members to protect themselves from similar incidents. The University will issue CU Alerts regarding criminal activity whenever the following criteria are met: 1) a crime is committed; 2) the perpetrator has not been apprehended; and 3) there is a substantial risk to the physical safety of other members of the campus community because of this crime. Such crimes include, but are not limited to: Clery Act crimes that are reported to any campus security authority or the local police; or the University determines that the incident represents an on-going threat to the campus community.

Additionally, the University Police may, in some circumstances, issue CU Alerts when there is a pattern of crimes against persons or property. At CU, the Chief of University Police will determine, in consultation with other University offices, if an CU Alert is required. For incidents involving off-campus crimes, the University may issue an CU Alert if the crime occurred in a location used and frequented by the University population.

EMERGENCY NOTIFICATION POLICY

Significant Emergency or Dangerous Situation

The President of the University, in conjunction with local or state public safety officials, has the authority to comply with emergency situations and close the institution. Such a declaration will be transmitted to the Chancellor or to the Executive Vice Chancellor for Administration of the West Virginia Higher Education Policy Commission (WV HEPC). The President, working with public safety officials, will determine when the emergency condition no longer exists. The President will consult with any of the following University officials to determine the validity of and appropriate response to an emergency situation depending on the nature of the matter: Chief of Police, and or all Cabinet Members, Chief Risk Management Officer, Director of Facilities, any or all of the College Deans, the Executive Director of the Concord University Research and Development Corporation, the Director of the Child Development Center, and the Board of Governors Chair.

Depending on the nature of the matter, the University will put out a timely warning to all of campus or certain groups on or off campus, including but not limited to students, employees, visitors, community members, volunteers, third party vendors or contractors, local agencies, local superintendents, local primary and secondary schools, local news and radio stations, or parents. The University will, without delay and taking into account the safety of the community, determine the content of the notification and initiation the notification system. Depending on the nature of the notification (i.e., text, email, website notice, news station, scrolling banner, etc.), the institution will determine the most appropriate way to explain the situation and provide additional guidance as necessary. Once it is determined that a notification must be disseminated, this will be initiated through either the Police Department, the President's Office, the Student Affairs Office, the Information Technology Office, or the Chief Risk Management Officer.

Methods of Disseminating an Emergency Notification

Text Messaging - Concord University Faculty, Staff, and Students may sign up via: https://www.concord.edu/cualerts to receive emergency notifications through text message.

E-mail - An email will be sent out to all Concord University email accounts. You can also sign up for an off campus email via: https://www.concord.edu/cualerts.

Concord Home Page - The home page (https://www.concord.edu) is updated immediately as information is available.

Residence Life - University Residences have procedures for alerting people in individual halls via their resident assistants, phones, and signage.

Local Media - The University works with the news media, radio, TV, newspapers, and Internet to help spread the word.

The University Provides, at all times, an Emergency Procedures Quick Reference Guide & Outline pdf's to all students, employees, visitors, and community members through its Office of Public Safety webpage at https://www.concord.edu/student-life/office-of-public-safety. This information includes emergency response and evacuation procedures.

Emergency Drills, Testing, and Evacuation Procedures.

The Office of Housing and Residence Life ensures that regular fire drills are done periodically throughout the year both announced and unannounced. Records are maintained by the Student Affairs Office and provided for review each year in compliance with the ASR and annual fire code inspections. Fire Drills are also performed annually for all children at the Child Development Center and in all buildings across campus on an annual basis. Records for these drills are maintained by the Child Development Center and the Director of Facilities for the University. Records include a description of the drill, location, date, time, and whether it was announced or unannounced.

Fire Safety and Evacuation Procedures

The Office of Housing and Residence Life provides the following information for residential students: https://www.concord.edu/student-life/residence-housing/policies-procedures.

The following procedures have been developed for the health, safety, and welfare of persons residing in Concord University residence halls. Persons residing in the residence halls are required to observe these procedures and completely cooperate with staff and other personnel during all evacuation conditions. Failure to comply with any of the following procedures may result in disciplinary action.

- 1. It is illegal to tamper with fire hoses, fire extinguishers, standpipe, sprinkler heads, or fire alarms.
- 2. It is illegal to block, wedge, or otherwise prevent any fire door from closing.
- 3. When fire and emergency alarms sound, all persons will immediately proceed to the nearest exit in a quiet and orderly fashion.
- 4. If the nearest exit is blocked, proceed to an alternate exit.
- 5. Close all doors as you leave.
- 6. Upon exiting the facility, move away from the evacuated building.
- 7. Listen for directions.
- 8. Report observance of any fire or people who could be in danger to those individuals in charge.
- 9. Do not re-enter the building until instructed by staff to do so; silencing of the alarm is not a signal to re-enter.
- 10. Re-enter through the main entrance only.

11. Elevators are not to be used as a means of exiting a residence hall during an evacuation

NOTE: Upon moving into a residence hall, each person is responsible for identifying the locations of various evacuation exits available in case an emergency should occur. When the alarm sounds, assume an emergency exists and vacate the premises immediately to reduce the possibility of being trapped. The sounding of the fire alarm is the only warning that you will receive for a possible emergency.

What you will need to do when you smell smoke:

WHERE THERE IS ANY AMOUNT OF SMOKE, immediately activate the alarm system and evacuate the building.

- Keep in mind the following guidelines when regular fire procedures are being followed:
 - Heat and most toxic gases rise. Therefore, you should crouch or crawl to avoid the most dangerous atmosphere.
 - Take short breaths, breathing through your nose only.
 - If trapped, placing any room with a closed door between you and the fire/smoke may offer refuge. Wait at a window for rescue. Open the window or break it out when breathing becomes difficult.
- 2. NEVER OPEN A HOT DOOR—SMOKE CAN BE FATAL.
 - o If there is enough heat in the hall to penetrate the wood panels, there is more than enough to kill you before you get to the head of the stairs or exit the door. This is what you should do:
 - Place the back of your hand on the door panel above your head. If there is heat, DO NOT OPEN THE DOOR! The hallway is already filled with deadly heated gases.
 - If you cannot escape through a window, then REMAIN IN THE ROOM with the door closed. Wait at the window for rescue. Shout for help.
 - o If the door does not feel hot you may open it slightly provided caution is used:
 - Brace the door with your hip or foot.
 - Place your hand across the opening to determine the temperature of the air.
 - If the air is hot, or if there is pressure against the door, CLOSE IT HARD. It is already too late to exit.
 - If the hallway appears safe, use a planned exit, and loudly arouse other occupants as you leave.

Fire Risks / Smoking in Buildings

Combustible materials are strictly prohibited in all residence halls. This includes, but is not limited to, items enumerated under the heading of Items You Are Required To Leave At Home. Confiscation and disposal of such items shall be permanent. Disabling smoke detectors, or any fire safety equipment, by removing batteries or covering the detector with any material, is a violation of federal fire safety code and strictly prohibited. Fines/fees shall be determined by either the State Fire Marshal or the Director of Housing and Residence Life.

Concord University is a tobacco free campus. The use of all tobacco products (Smokeless tobacco, smoking, and vaping) is prohibited in residence halls and on campus. Residents are required to observe this policy at all times. When a fire alarm is sounded, all students are required by law to vacate the building.

EDUCATION & PROGRAMS FOR THE PREVENTION OF SEXUAL ASSAULT, DOMESTIC VIOLENCE, DATING VIOLENCE, OR STALKING

Sexual Assault Response Team (S.A.R.T.)

S.A.R.T. – A coordinated team of people who serve victims of sexual assault.

Any Concord University Community member who is seeking help with a current or past sexual assault should contact any member of our team with whom you feel comfortable. In all cases, the sooner the better. Contact information of all members is provided on the webpage at https://www.concord.edu/student-life/office-of-public-safety/sexual-assault-response-team-s-a-r-t.

Maizy Talbert, Chair

If you have been a victim of Sexual Assault, on campus or off campus, please contact your local police department, hospital, or S.A.R.T. member.

Each year the Sexual Assault Response Team (S.A.R.T.) partners with a local agency to sponsor sexual assault prevention and awareness education programs and activities for Sexual Assault Awareness Month in April. Organizations across campus also volunteer to host events for students and employees to raise awareness and educate the campus community.

Programs and Activities include:

- Paint It Teal Day Paint one or more of your nail's teal show support for survivors and victims of sexual assault - Student Center - State Room. Individuals who donated or supported the event received a t-shirt that was later worn in unison to show support for the cause.
- CU S.A.R.T. partnered with the Family Refuge Center to facilitate a Sexual Assault Awareness Presentation for students and employees in the State Room.
- Stalking Awareness Programs are facilitated by the University and provided through the Family Refuge Center.
- The University scheduled multiple local agencies to come and set up information tables across campus throughout the year, including the Family Refuge Center and local women's shelter.

PROCEDURES TO FOLLOW IF A CRIME OF SEXUAL ASSAULT, DOMESTIC VIOLENCE, DATING VIOLENCE, OR STALKING HAVE OCCURRED

Sexual & Gender Violence Annual Security Report Policy

Intro

Concord University is committed to ensuring a safe learning and working environment. In compliance with federal requirements, the University has adopted policies and procedures to prevent and respond to incidents of sexual violence, including sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking. These policies apply to all faculty, staff, students, vendors/contractors, volunteers, and visitors.

Reporting an Incident

If any member of the campus community or visitor has been the victim of sexual violence, they should immediately report it to the Concord University Police Department, located in the Rahall Technology Center on East Broadway Street, at (304) 384-5357. In the event of an emergency or ongoing threat, if possible, get to a safe location and dial 911. Inform dispatch of your location on campus, including the building, floor, room, nearby offices, etc., to assist the CUPD in responding quicker. Athens Police Department is located at 202 S. State St., Athens, WV and can be contacted at (304) 384-3525; this number is not monitored 24/7. Princeton Police Department is located at 100 Courthouse Rd., Princeton, WV and can be contacted at (304) 487-5000. Mercer County Sheriff's Office is located at 1501 W. Main Street, Princeton, WV and can be contacted at (304) 487-8364. In the event of an emergency, dial 911.

Students and employees may also report to Chelsey M. Rowe, the Title IX Coordinator, located in Marsh Hall, Room 324, and at (304) 384-5175 or titleix@concord.edu. Students may also report to the Student Affairs Office, located in the Jean & Jerry Beasley Student Center in Room 201, and at (304) 384-5231 or studentaffairs@concord.edu. Concord University officials will assist any victim in notifying law enforcement, including local police, if they elect to do so. Victims are also entitled not to report to law enforcement. Any student or employee, who reports an incident of sexual violence, whether the offense occurred on or off campus, shall receive a written explanation of their rights and options. As it relates to University Policy, a sexual assault is any sexual act directed against another person, forcibly and/or against that person's will (without consent); or not forcibly or against the person's will where the victim is incapable of giving consent, as well as incest or statutory rape.

W. Va. Code § 61-8B-3: Sexual Assault in the First Degree:

- (a) A person is guilty of sexual assault in the first degree when:
- (1) The person engages in sexual intercourse or sexual intrusion with another person and, in so doing:
- (A) Inflicts serious bodily injury upon anyone;
- (ii) (B) Employs a deadly weapon in the commission of the act.
- (2) The person, being 14 years old or more, engages in sexual intercourse or sexual intrusion with another person who is younger than 12 years old.
- (b) Any person violating the provisions of this section is guilty of a felony and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not less than $1,000 nor more than $10,000 and imprisoned in a state correctional facility not less than 15 nor more than 35 years.
- (c) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (b) of this section, the penalty for any person violating the provisions of subsection (a) of this section who is 18 years of age or older and whose victim is younger than 12 years of age, shall be imprisonment in a state correctional facility for not less than 25 nor more than 100 years and a fine of not less than $5,000 nor more than $25,000.

W. Va. Code § 61-8B-4: Sexual Assault in the Second Degree:

- (a) A person is guilty of sexual assault in the second degree when:
- (1) Such person engages in sexual intercourse or sexual intrusion with another person without the person's consent, and the lack of consent results from forcible compulsion; or
- (2) Such person engages in sexual intercourse or sexual intrusion with another person who is physically helpless.
- (b) Any person who violates the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a felony, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not less than ten nor more than twenty-five years, or fined not less than $1,000 nor more than $10,000 and imprisoned in the penitentiary not less than ten nor more than twenty-five years.

W. Va. Code § 61-8B-5: Sexual Assault in the Third Degree:

- (a) A person is guilty of sexual assault in the third degree when:
- (1) The person engages in sexual intercourse or sexual intrusion with another person who is mentally defective or mentally incapacitated; or
- (2) The person, being 16 years old or more, engages in sexual intercourse or sexual intrusion with another person who is less than 16 years old and who is at least four years younger than the defendant.
- (b) Any person violating the provisions of this section is guilty of a felony and, upon conviction thereof, shall be imprisoned in a state correctional facility not less than one year nor more than five years, or fined not more than $10,000 and imprisoned in a state correctional facility not less than one year nor more than five years.

Pursuant W. Va. Code § 48-27-202 and Institutional Policy, "Domestic violence" or "abuse" means the occurrence of one or more of the following acts between family or household members, as that term is defined in section two hundred four of article 27, chapter 48:

(1) Attempting to cause or intentionally, knowingly or recklessly causing physical harm to another with or without dangerous or deadly weapons; (2) Placing another in reasonable apprehension of physical harm; (3) Creating fear of physical harm by harassment, stalking, psychological abuse or threatening acts; (4) Committing either sexual assault or sexual abuse as those terms are defined in articles eight-b and eight-d, chapter sixty-one of this code; and (5) Holding, confining, detaining or abducting another person against that person's will.

Institutionally, Dating Violence means violence committed by a person who is or has been in a romantic or intimate relationship with the victim.

W. Va. Code § 61-2-9a: Stalking, Harassment, Penalties, Definition.

(a) Stalking. — Any person who engages in a course of conduct directed at another person with the intent to cause the other person to fear for his or her personal safety, the safety of others, or suffer substantial emotional distress, or causes a third person to so act, is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not more than $1,000, confined in jail for not more than six months, or both fined and confined.

W. Va. Code § 61-8B-2: Lack of Consent

- (a) Whether or not specifically stated, it is an element of every offense defined in this article that the sexual act was committed without the consent of the victim.
- (b) Lack of consent results from:
- (1) Forcible compulsion;
- (2) Incapacity to consent; or
- (3) If the offense charged is sexual abuse, any circumstances in addition to the forcible compulsion or incapacity to consent in which the victim does not expressly or impliedly acquiesce in the actor's conduct.
- (c) A person is deemed incapable of consent when such person is:
- (1) Less than sixteen years old;
- (2) Mentally defective;
- (3) Mentally incapacitated;
- (4) Physically helpless; or
- (5) Subject to incarceration, confinement or supervision by a state, county, or local government entity, when the actor is a person prohibited from having sexual intercourse or causing sexual intrusion or sexual contact pursuant to $61-8B-10 of this code.

Risk Reduction – Relationship Violence

Relationship violence refers to any unwanted or harmful physical, sexual, verbal, emotional, or psychological act inflicted by a casual or intimate partner with the intent—real or perceived—of causing pain, injury, or distress. Such violence is fundamentally about one partner exerting power and control over the other, often through patterns of manipulation, intimidation, or abuse. It can occur in any intimate relationship, regardless of gender identity or sexual orientation, and affects both heterosexual and LGBTQ+ relationships.

Recognizing the warning signs of abusive behavior is a critical step in reducing risk and promoting healthy, respectful relationships. Abusive behaviors may include, but are not limited to:

- Verbal Abuse: Swearing, insults, continuous criticism of behavior or appearance, or demeaning statements such as "nobody else would want you."
- Emotional and Psychological Abuse: Withholding affection, manipulation through lies or broken promises, attempts to isolate a partner from friends and family,

- monitoring or controlling a partner's activities, or causing fear through threats of abandonment or harm.
- Physical Abuse: Throwing objects, shoving, slapping, punching, hitting, biting, or threatening harm with or without a weapon.
- Sexual Abuse: Coercion, unwanted sexual contact, rape, or using jealousy and possessiveness as a means of control.

Risk Reduction Strategies

The University encourages proactive steps to reduce the risk of relationship violence, while recognizing that the responsibility for violence always rests with the perpetrator, not the victim. Risk reduction efforts include:

- Building awareness of unhealthy relationship "red flags" and seeking support early when concerns arise.
- Establishing and maintaining healthy boundaries, and clearly communicating expectations in relationships.
- Seeking confidential support services, such as counseling or advocacy programs, when experiencing controlling or harmful behaviors.
- Relying on peer networks and campus/community resources for guidance and assistance in recognizing and addressing abusive behavior.
- Encouraging bystander intervention, where peers are empowered to safely and responsibly step in or seek help if they witness abusive or potentially abusive dynamics.

Through education, supportive resources, and community engagement, the University works to reduce the prevalence of dating and relationship violence and to promote a campus culture rooted in safety, dignity, and respect.

Additional support and resources can be provided through the S.A.R.T. and the Title IX Coordinator.

National Domestic Violence Hotline

1-800-799-7233, 1-800-787-3224 (TTY) www.thehotline.org

Written Notice of Rights & Options

Any student, prospective student, employee, or prospective employee will be given written notification about the following: existing counseling and mental health options; health & wellness options; information about victims advocacy resources; information regarding obtaining legal assistance if needed; visa and immigration assistance; student financial aid information and assistance; reporting information; safety related information; other services, resources, and information available within the institution, within the local community, via telehealth options, via online options, and 24/7 hotlines; available options and assistance (including how to request changes and who to contact for such) with academic situations, living situations, transportation situations, working situations, and protective measures for safety related situations.

Following a report of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking, whether the offense occurred on or off campus, the institution will provide the student or employee a written explanation of the student's or employee's rights and options.

Procedures Victims Should Follow

Victims of sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking are strongly encouraged to take steps to preserve any evidence, as it may be critical in proving the offense or in obtaining protective orders. Evidence is best preserved by avoiding activities such as bathing, showering, using the restroom, changing clothes, combing hair, cleaning up the area, or discarding damaged items before a medical exam can be conducted. Clothing worn at the time of the incident should be placed in a clean paper bag (not plastic) and brought to the hospital or law enforcement. Victims should also save any text messages, emails, social media communications, call logs, voicemails, photographs, or other records that may document threatening, harassing, or abusive behavior. Promptly seeking a forensic medical exam at a hospital or designated clinic helps ensure physical evidence is collected properly and can also provide important medical care. Even if a victim chooses not to pursue criminal charges immediately, preserving evidence allows them to keep future options open. The University's Sexual Assault Response Team (S.A.R.T.) is available to assist individuals with coordinating a medical exam. Contact information for the S.A.R.T. Team can be found at: https://www.concord.edu/student-life/office-of-public-safety/sexual-assault-responseteam-s-a-r-t.

On & Off Campus Resources

Apart from the many on-campus resources identified throughout the ASR, there are a multitude of off-campus, local, and online resources available for victims of sexual violence including, but not limited to, medical treatment, counseling, support services, and reporting assistance.

Victims do not need to report incidents to the CUPD or Concord University officials to take advantage of the following resources:

Accommodations

Whether or not a student or employee reports to law enforcement and/or pursues any formal action through the University, Concord University is still committed to providing as safe a learning and/or working environment as possible. Upon request, the University will make any reasonable change to a party's academic, living, transportation, and/or working situation. Students and Employees may contact the Title IX Coordinator at (304) 384-5175, titleix@concord.edu, or in Marsh Hall, Room 324.

The Title IX Coordinator is responsible for issuing No Contact Orders should the parties require this as a supportive measure. Concord University is committed to ensuring that any such order is fully upheld on all institutionally owned and controlled property. Concord University is also committed to protecting victims from any further harm, and the University may issue a separate permanent no contact order or campus ban letter pending the outcome of any conduct proceeding.

Victim Confidentiality

Pursuant to federal requirements, confidentiality of victim information and witness information will be maintained and only shared with institutional officials with a legitimate interest or need to know to fulfill their duty as a University official. University officials will only be made aware of the identity of the victim and accused to the extent needed to fulfill the protective measures implemented or accommodations required. When reporting statistics in response to federal or state requirements, all reporting is done through anonymized methods of numerical reporting to preserve confidentiality of the information reported.

Students may report confidentially to a counselor at the Counseling Center or to a staff member of the Student Health Center. Reports made to these individuals will not be shared with University officials unless the report involves current threats of harm to oneself or others.

Programs to prevent Dating Violence, Domestic Violence, Sexual Assault, and Stalking

The University provides comprehensive educational programming designed to prevent domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking. These programs include both primary prevention initiatives and awareness training for students and employees.

As part of its commitment, the University conducts annual educational opportunities that features a variety of presentations and trainings. These include distributing educational materials to new students, integrating prevention programming into new student orientation and employee onboarding, contributing to faculty orientation, and delivering presentations throughout the year to various student organizations and academic departments. Targeted training is also provided to specific groups, including all student-athletes prior to the start of their season, all University 100 students during their first year, transfer students, and other student groups such as peer mentoring programs and Bonner Scholars.

In addition, all Campus Security Authorities (CSAs)- including University Police, security personnel, and other officials with significant responsibility for campus and student activities—receive training to ensure they are prepared to fulfill their reporting and response obligations.

Conduct Proceedings

Concord University maintains a zero-tolerance policy for all acts of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking. In addition to potential criminal liability, students, employees, and other University affiliates may be subject to institutional disciplinary action. Sanctions for those found responsible for such violations may include permanent expulsion, termination of employment, suspension, probation, no-contact directives, restitution, and/or other disciplinary measures deemed appropriate. Reports involving student respondents will be addressed through the Title IX process administered by the Office of Student Affairs, while reports involving employees or other affiliates will be handled collaboratively by the Title IX Office and the Office of Human Resources.

All conduct proceedings—regardless of whether the reported incident occurred on or off campus—are designed to ensure a prompt, fair, and impartial investigation and resolution. Proceedings are conducted by trained officials who receive annual instruction on the dynamics of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking, as well as on conducting investigations and hearings in a manner that protects the safety of all parties and fosters accountability. Responsibility is determined by the Title IX Decision Maker using the preponderance of the evidence standard, meaning that it is more likely than not that the alleged misconduct occurred.

Throughout the process, both the complainant and respondent are afforded equal rights, including the opportunity to be accompanied at any related meeting or proceeding by an advisor of their choice, including an attorney retained at their own expense. Both parties will receive simultaneous written notification of the Decision Maker's determination, the procedures for appeal, any changes to the outcome before it becomes final, and the point at which the outcome is considered final. Notification of the outcome will be provided unconditionally to both parties, each of whom retains the right to share—or decline to share—those results with third parties.

For additional information about conduct proceedings for both students and employees, please consult the Nondiscrimination, Sexual Misconduct, and Other Forms of Harassment Policy CU-HR-37 at https://www.concord.edu/about/administration/board-of-governors/bog-policies.

Protective Orders

In instances in which a victim has a protective order, restraining order, or similar lawful order issued by a criminal, civil, or tribal court, or by the institution, the University will take individualized measures to develop a Safety Plan to ensure the safety of the victim, ensure their equal access to the school's education programs and activities, and provide support in times of distress or need. The Institution will work with local agencies or courts, if necessary, to ensure compliance with all such orders. The CUPD will be provided copies of all known orders to ensure compliance and address any violations should they occur. The CUPD has arresting authority to arrest individuals in violation of such orders issued through the court system. Students and prospective students should contact the Dean of Students at (304) 384-5231 or the Concord University Police Department at (304) 384-5357 to disclose active protective orders to ensure safety measures are put in place. Employees should contact the CUPD or the Office of Human Resources at (304) 384-5175 to disclose such orders to ensure safety measures are taken.

Protective Measures

Concord University offers protective measures for all victims following an allegation of sexual assault. Protective measures include, but are not limited to, residence hall relocation, facility access plan, safety plan, campus safety escort, no contact order between the parties, assistance reporting to law enforcement, on and off campus counseling, student work schedule adjustment, legal support information, academic adjustment, on-campus medical care, off campus medical resources, academic withdrawal, and visa/immigration information and assistance.

REGISTERED SEX OFFENDER POLICY STATEMENT

Pursuant to the West Virginia Sex Offender Registration Act, within 5 business days after receiving information regarding a registered sex offender, the State Police will distribute a copy of such registration to the supervisor of each county and municipal law-enforcement office and any campus police department in the city and county where the registrant resides, owns or leases habitable real property that he or she regularly visits, is employed or attends school or a training facility. The registry serves as a resource to protect the public not as a penal measure.

DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURES & UNIVERSITY RESPONSE TO REPORTS OF SEXUAL ASSAULT

Commitment to Addressing Sexual Harassment & Sexual Assault

Concord does not tolerate sexual misconduct or abuse, such as sexual assault, rape or any other forms of nonconsensual sexual activity. Sexual misconduct in any form violates the Student Code of Conduct, University Policy (CU-HR-37: Nondiscrimination, Sexual Misconduct, and Other Forms of Harassment Policy), and may violate Federal and State Laws. Violations of this policy are subject to disciplinary sanctions through the Office of Student Conduct, Title IX, and/or those outlined in applicable University policies. Please visit https://www.concord.edu/student-life/title-ix to review procedures, policies and protocols for reporting and addressing allegations of student sexual misconduct. The University provides the following rights to all sexual assault victims:

- Upon request, Concord University will make any reasonable change to a victim's academic, living, transportation, and/or working situation.
- The victim and the accused will receive a written explanation of their rights and options.
- Both the complainant and the respondent will have the same opportunities to have others present during the conduct proceedings.
- The University will ensure that the complainant and the respondent both receive a written notice of the final determination of the investigation.
- If desired, University officials will assist the victim in contacting either campus law enforcement or local law enforcement authorities.
- On campus counseling services are available to students through the Counseling Center.

 Students who have been subject to sexual assault, sexual violence or sexual harassment may request to withdraw from a semester or individual courses; assistance with this process will be provided upon request.

University Procedures for Responding to Reports of Sexual Assault

If you or someone you know is the victim of a sexual assault, the victim has several rights, including:

- The right to report the incident to the University Police or local authorities. The University will assist victims in notifying either the University or local police. Filing a police report does not mean the victim must pursue criminal charges. The victim maintains his or her rights throughout the process.
- The right to file a complaint with the Title IX Coordinator. Victims can file both the Title IX and the authorities, just Title IX, or just the authorities. There is no requirement that a victim file in all available places possible.
- In addition to the campus services listed below, there are also several community service organizations that can provide counseling, mental health, and other related services to sexual assault victims. Student Affairs can assist with connecting victims to these services.
- You can also contact the Office of Civil Rights by calling 1 (800) 421-3481 or by visiting the OCR website which provides instructions for how to file a complaint at https://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/docs/howto.html.

University Disciplinary Procedures in Sexual Assault Incidents

If you have been sexually assaulted, you have options for addressing such conduct. You may wish to discuss the problem privately with a counselor or staff member of the Student Health Center. University Police are always available to assist a victim with getting the support they request. Title IX will also handle reports of sexual violence.

The University's Title IX process is designed to afford a complainant (the person who is bringing a charge) and a respondent (the person who is answering a charge) a fair, prompt, and appropriate resolution process. The process is designed to help persons who need support as they address these incidents.

The Office of Title IX manages the resolution proceeding in which a student or employee is the alleged perpetrator/respondent. The full text of the protocol for how the University responds to sexual assault complaints through the campus grievance process can be found at https://www.concord.edu/student-life/title-ix and CU-HR-37: the Nondiscrimination, Sexual Misconduct, and Other Forms of Harassment Policy can be found at https://www.concord.edu/about/administration/board-of-governors/bog-policies.

In determining whether the alleged conduct constitutes sexual harassment or assault, the full context in which the alleged incident occurred must be considered. In any case, both the accuser and the accused are entitled to the same opportunities to have others present during any disciplinary proceeding. Both the accuser and the accused will be informed of the outcome of any proceeding.

During any sexual assault complaint proceeding, the University has a range of sanctions available. Those sanctions may range from probation to expulsion from the University, depending upon the nature and circumstances of the specific incident. The range of sanctions available are as follows:

Written Warning

 A formal statement that the conduct was unacceptable and a warning that further violation of any Concord policy, procedure, or directive will result in more severe sanctions/responsive actions.

Probation

A written reprimand for violation of institutional policy, providing for more severe disciplinary sanctions in the event that the student or organization is found in violation of any institutional policy, procedure, or directive within a specified period of time. Terms of the probation will be articulated and may include denial of specified social privileges, exclusion from co-curricular activities, exclusion from designated areas of campus, no-contact orders, and/or other measures deemed appropriate.

Suspension

 Termination of student status for a definite period of time not to exceed two years and/or until specific criteria are met. Students who return from suspension, as imposed by this Policy, are automatically placed on probation through the remainder of their tenure as a student at Concord.

Expulsion

 Permanent termination of student status and revocation of rights to be on campus for any reason or to attend Concord-sponsored events. This sanction will be noted permanently as a Conduct Expulsion on the student's official transcript, [subject to any applicable expungement policies].

Withholding Diploma

 Concord may withhold a student's diploma for a specified period of time and/or deny a student participation in commencement activities as a sanction if the student is found responsible for violating policy.

Revocation of Degree

 Concord reserves the right to revoke a degree previously awarded from Concord for fraud, misrepresentation, and/or other violation of Concord policies, procedures, or directives in obtaining the degree, or for other serious violations committed by a student prior to graduation.

Other Actions

 In addition to or in place of the above sanctions, Concord may assign any other sanctions as deemed appropriate.

Sexual Assault Prevention Education Programs

As part of the mandatory University 100 course that all freshman and transferring students must take during their first semester at Concord University, there are certain initiatives, education programs, and trainings provided by the Institution.

As part of the Orientation process, students are provided specific information related to Sexual Assault Prevention:

Concord University is committed to creating a safe environment free from discrimination, sexual harassment, and sexual misconduct. Report unwanted behavior to the Title IX Coordinator (titleix@concord.edu) or complete an online Referral Form found under the Student Life menu on the CU website.

- Get verbal consent from your partner before engaging in any type of sexual activity.
- Sexual assault includes a wide range of behaviors, including various types of unwanted sexual contact (e.g. inappropriate/nonconsensual touching, grabbing, fondling, kissing, etc.).
- Know your sexual limits and communicate them clearly and effectively.
- Use smart, basic safety precautions, such as:
 - Don't go off campus, back to campus, or to someone's residence with people you don't know or trust.
 - o Use the "buddy system." Stay in a group or with people you know and trust.
 - Tell someone where you are going, who you will be with, and when you'll return.
 - o Always have a plan for how to get home. Have money for emergencies.
 - Keep a charged cell phone with you. Call 911 in an emergency.
 - Do not leave a drink unattended and/or accept a drink that you have not poured or mixed yourself. Know your resources and emergency phone numbers.
 - Be mindful of your alcohol intake. Know alcohol and drugs can impair the ability to make good decisions. Inhibitions can be lowered with alcohol/drugs.
- Be aware that 90% of sexual assault victims are familiar with the perpetrator.
- Practice Bystander Intervention. Don't be afraid to intervene, or ask others for help, if you are personally in an uncomfortable situation, or you see someone else potentially in danger (e.g. leaving a party with a stranger, drinking too much, acting unusual, etc.).

Step Up • Speak Up • Look Out For One Another

In an emergency, call 911. If you have been a victim of Sexual Assault, on campus or off campus, please contact the CU Police Department at 304-384-5357, Princeton Community Hospital at 304-487-7000, the Mercer County Rape Crisis Center at 681-282-557 (24 hour hotline) or a CU SART member. Names of SART members, medical services, reporting agencies, and support services can be found on our S.A.R.T. webpage. To take the pledge to end sexual violence, visit www.itsonus.org.

Bystander Intervention Initiatives

As part of the Orientation process, students are provided specific information related to Bystander Intervention:

Active Bystander Intervention is acting to intervene in a potentially dangerous situation. Bystander intervention is applicable to many situations, including bullying, sexual assault, alcohol and drug abuse, and suicide prevention.

An Active Bystander helps address behaviors BEFORE violence occurs. SAFELY intervene when you see a potentially dangerous, undesirable, or pre-violent situation by doing some of the following:

- Distract the person who is acting inappropriately or aggressively.
- Make certain that the potential victim makes it home safely.
- Grab a friend—or two—to help you intervene.
- Act as if you are with the potential victim, even if you are not.
- Act as if you need to speak privately with the potential victim and lead him/her away to a public place.
- For more information on an active bystander's role in bullying, visit au.reachout.com/articles/being-a-bystander-of-bullying.

• For more information on an active bystander's role in sexual assault, visit rainn.org/get-information/sexual-assault-prevention/bystanders-can-help.

SECURITY AWARENESS PROGRAMS POLICY STATEMENT

During orientation, Concord University students are informed of services-offered by the Office of Public Safety. Verbal, as well as written instructions defined in the current addition of the Concord University Student Handbook ways to maintain personal safety and residence hall security.

In addition to the many programs offered by the University Police and other University offices, the University has established a number of policies and procedures related to ensuring a reasonably safe campus community. These policies include:

Threat Assessment Team (TAT)

The University established the Threat Assessment Team (TAT) to provide a process through which University officials will review, evaluate, and manage potentially threatening situations that occur at the University. The TAT meets twice per month unless additional needs arise. The TAT is comprised of a multi-disciplinary team of campus leaders and those who work directly with students. The TAT utilizes the National Behavioral Intervention Team Association to provide training for team members and resources to fulfill the duties required for such service. For more information about the TAT, please contact the Dean of Students at (304) 384-5231 or the Chief Risk Management Officer at (304) 384-5175.

Deadly Weapons & Dangerous Objects Policy

As of July 1, 2024, the State of West Virginia will enact the Campus Self-Defense Act, W. Va. Code § 18B-4-5b, allowing individuals with a current and valid concealed handgun license (CHL) to carry a concealed pistol or revolver on the campus of all public institutions of higher education in WV, including Concord University. CU-GA-78: Deadly Weapons & Dangerous Objects Policy outlines the parameters around conceal carrying on Concord Property. https://www.concord.edu/about/administration/board-of-governors/bog-policies.

Members of the Concord University community, including students, faculty, staff, volunteers, and guests, are advised against attempting to monitor or enforce compliance with the statute regarding individuals who carry handguns. The Office of Public Safety, through its certified law enforcement officers, is solely responsible for enforcement, engagement, and inquiry into suspected violations of the statute.

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact the Office of Public Safety at (304) 384-5357 or cupd@concord.edu. Please call 911 if there is an emergency.

Disclaimer: Is it ultimately the responsibility of the individual to know the current laws applied to the specific locations they visit and functions in which they participate in on campus. This webpage is not an authoritative source of law but is offered as a summation of information for our campus community to learn more about the Campus Self-Defense Act. https://www.concord.edu/campus-carry

Student Conduct

The Office of Student Affairs

The Office of Student Affairs, under the leadership of the Chief Student Affairs Officer and Dean of Students, is dedicated to advancing the University's commitment to the holistic development of students. Through a wide range of programs and initiatives, Student Affairs fosters personal and social growth by encouraging active engagement in community service, career exploration, health and wellness, peer mentorship, and student life activities.

The Student Code of Conduct

The Dean of Students holds primary responsibility for the administration of the Student Code of Conduct, which establishes the University's behavioral expectations and outlines the equitable procedures used to address allegations of student misconduct.

Students determined to have violated the Code of Conduct may be subject to sanctions ranging from a Disciplinary Warning or Disciplinary Probation to Suspension or permanent Expulsion from the University. Students residing in University housing may also forfeit the privilege of on-campus residency if found responsible for violations of University policies or the terms of the housing contract. In collaboration with campus partners, the Dean of Students may also assign developmental and educational interventions designed to foster greater awareness, enhance decision-making, and deter future misconduct.

In cases where there is reasonable cause to believe that a student presents an immediate threat to the safety of themselves, others, property, or the essential operations of the University, the Dean of Students, in consultation with the Chief Risk Management Officer, may impose interim measures. Such actions are intended to safeguard the health and safety of the student, the campus community, and its members.

Any individual may submit reports alleging student misconduct to the Dean of Students via email at studentaffairs@concord.edu, in person by visiting the Student Affairs Office located in the Jean & Jerry Beasley Student Center, 2nd floor, Room 201, by calling (304) 384-5231, or by completing the online complaint form found here: https://www.concord.edu/student-life/resources-forms.

The Student Code of Conduct, among many other helpful resources can be found on the website at concord.edu > Student Life > Student Information > Student Handbook. https://www.concord.edu/student-life/student-information. The Procedures for Student Conduct Violations are explained in the Student Handbook along with all possible sanctions, description of proceedings, hearing board options, standard of evidence, definitions, etc.

Parental Notification

Pursuant to CU-SA-36: Parental Notification of Student Offenses Policy, the University has authority to notify parents or guardians when students under the age of 21 are found to have committed violations of University Policy related to the possession, use, or distribution of alcohol or drugs. https://www.concord.edu/about/administration/board-of-governors/bog-policies.

Federal legislation authorizes Concord to disclose disciplinary records concerning violations of the University's rules and regulations governing the use or possession of alcohol or controlled substances that involve students who are under the age of 21 regardless of whether the student is a dependent.

Periodically during the academic year, members of the Public Safety Office, in cooperation with other University organizations and departments, present crime prevention awareness sessions on sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, theft, vandalism, driving under the influence, and educational sessions on the personal safety and residence hall security, among other topics. A common theme of all the awareness and crime prevention programs is to encourage students and employees to be aware of their responsibility for their own safety and the security of others.

DRUG, ALCOHOL, AND SUBSTANCE ABUSE POLICY STATEMENTS

Concord Policy regarding Possession, Use, and Sale of Alcoholic Beverages

CU-GA-23: Alcoholic Beverages on the Concord University Campus Policy

The possession or use of alcoholic beverages is prohibited on public property or inside public facilities of Concord University, except as provided under the conditions outlined below.

Alcohol may only be served with the approval of the President or his/her designee on a case-by-case basis and in accordance with the following requirements:

- Wine, beer, or other alcoholic beverages may never be the primary reason for a gathering.
- The majority of attendees at the event must be of legal drinking age.
- No person under the age of twenty-one (21) may be served alcohol.
- Non-alcoholic beverages and food must also be provided.
- No individual under the age of twenty-one (21) may serve alcohol. All servers must receive appropriate training and comply with state laws and regulations regarding alcohol service.
- State funds may not be used to purchase alcohol.

Pursuant to the Student Code of Conduct, alcohol is prohibited on campus except under these approved circumstances. Underage consumption of alcohol is strictly prohibited. Students who violate alcohol-related provisions of the Student Code of Conduct will be referred to the Student Conduct Hearing Board, unless circumstances warrant a University Hearing.

Definitions – Student Code of Conduct (Student Handbook)

Alcoholic Beverage – Refers to any "non-intoxicating beverage." A "non-intoxicating beverage" is a beverage that contains twelve percent (12%) alcohol by volume or less. Beverages with more than twelve percent (12%) alcohol (i.e., spirits) are not permitted on campus except when provided by ARAMARK via its ABC license or with special approval from the President or his/her designee.

Alcoholic Beverages (Administrative Note) – The President of the University or his/her designee reserves the right to approve written procedures that supersede existing rules and policies at his/her discretion, for a specified period of time.

Underage Consumption of Alcohol – Any person under the age of twenty-one (21) who possesses and/or consumes alcoholic beverages on University premises or at University-sponsored events is in violation of this policy.

Possession of University-Prohibited Alcoholic Beverages – Any student found in possession of an alcoholic beverage not permitted under Article III, Section 1 shall be found in violation of this policy.

Volume Provision for Alcoholic Beverages – Possession of more than six (6) cans, or seventy-two (72) fluid ounces, of beer or other alcoholic beverages as defined in Article III, Section 1, within a residence hall constitutes a violation of this policy.

Conveyance Provision for Alcoholic Beverages – Alcoholic beverages brought onto University property must be transported in sealed containers that reasonably conceal their contents. Failure to comply constitutes a violation of this policy.

Consumption of Alcohol in Unauthorized Areas – Individuals of legal drinking age may only consume alcoholic beverages in a residence hall room if all individuals present in the room are also at least twenty-one (21) years of age. This restriction does not apply to events or areas specifically authorized by the University for alcohol consumption.

Supplying Alcohol to an Underage Individual – Providing alcohol to any person under the age of twenty-one (21) is a violation of this policy.

Public Intoxication – Any person found to be intoxicated on University property or at a University-sponsored event, whether due to alcohol, narcotics, or other intoxicants, is in violation of this policy.

Sanction Restriction – Students subject to full restrictions as a disciplinary sanction are prohibited from possessing or consuming alcohol on campus, even if they are twenty-one (21) years of age or older.

Applicable Law

§ 60-3A-24. Unlawful Acts by Persons (Underage Consumption or Possession) Any person under the age of twenty-one (21) who purchases, consumes, sells, serves, or possesses alcoholic liquor is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, may be fined up to five hundred dollars ($500), incarcerated for up to seventy-two (72) hours, or both. In lieu of fine or incarceration, first-time offenders may be placed on probation for a period not to exceed one (1) year.

Illegal Drugs

The U.S. Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act Amendments of 1989 - Amends the Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act of 1986 (the Act) to revise funding distribution for certain programs. Authorizes appropriations for FY 1991 through 1993 for a new emergency grants program. https://www.congress.gov/bill/101st-congress/house-bill/3614/text.

The Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act (DFSCA) Amendments of 1989 require institutions of higher education to adopt and implement a program to prevent the illicit use of drugs and the abuse of alcohol by students and employees on university property or as a part of university activities. The DFSCA also requires institutions to establish policies that address the unlawful possession, use, or distribution of alcohol and illicit drugs. The information provided below, which is part of the Policy adopted to comply with these Acts, serves as the annual notice to all employees. See CU-HR-51: Drug and Alcohol Abuse Policy & Prevention Program at https://www.concord.edu/about/administration/board-of-governors/bog-policies. However, all new students and employees receive written notice of the information contained herein.

CU-HR-51 Policy

The elements of the University's policy and program include annual distribution of policy and program information to students and employees, consequences that may follow through the use of alcohol and other drugs, and sanctions that may be applied both by the University and by external authorities. The law requires that individuals be notified of possible sources of assistance for problems that may arise as a result of use.

Purpose

The University is committed to the overall health and well-being of faculty, staff, and students. The primary objective of the University is to contribute to the growth of the student and to provide a positive workplace for faculty and staff, who serve as educators and role models for the students. The University works to maintain an environment conducive to health and free from conditions that may prove harmful or distract from or conflict with the University's mission. The behavior resulting from the use of drugs and alcohol can endanger both the individual user and others, and often limits one's full participation in and contribution to the total program of the University. As a result, the use of drugs and alcohol is incompatible with the educational process and inconsistent with the basic purpose of any academic community. Concord University is a drug-free workplace. To help ensure the safety and well-being of faculty, staff, students, and the general public, the University is committed to maintaining a campus environment that is free of illegal drugs and of drugs and alcohol that are used illegally. The main focus of the University's program is to provide both curricular and extracurricular education and prevention activities. The intent is that providing the education and prevention activities will deter illegal consumption and usage and promote the health and well-being of the campus community.

Standards of Conduct

The possession of, distribution, cultivation or use by any student or employee of any narcotic or hallucinogenic drugs in either the refined or crude form, except under the direction of a licensed physician, is prohibited on University owned or controlled properties and at functions sponsored by Concord University off campus. Alcoholic beverages are not permitted on University owned or controlled properties or at functions sponsored by Concord University off campus unless approved pursuant to Concord Board of Governor Policy No. 23, the Concord University Student Handbook, and the State of West Virginia Alcohol Beverage Control Administration.

Legal Sanctions under Local, State, and Federal Law for the Unlawful Possession or Distribution of illicit Drugs & Alcohol.

State Sanctions: West Virginia law prohibits illicit selling, cultivating, manufacturing, or otherwise trafficking in controlled substances, including, but not limited to, cocaine, heroin, amphetamines and marijuana; knowingly or recklessly furnishing them to a minor; and administering them to any person by force, threat, or deception with the intent to cause serious harm or if serious harm results. These offenses are felonies. The law prohibits knowingly obtaining, possessing or using a controlled substance and permitting drug use on one's premises or in one's vehicle. These offenses may be either felonies or misdemeanors. The law prohibits obtaining, possessing or using hypodermics and other drug paraphernalia for unlawful administration of drugs, and the sale to juveniles of paraphernalia for use with marijuana. A felony conviction may lead to imprisonment or both imprisonment and fine. A misdemeanor conviction may lead to imprisonment and/or a fine.

With regard to alcohol, West Virginia law provides that a person under twenty-one years of age who orders, pays for, attempts to purchase, possesses or consumes alcohol, or furnishes false information in order to effect a purchase, commits a misdemeanor.

Federal Sanctions: Under federal laws trafficking in drugs such as heroin or cocaine may result in sanctions up to and including 10 years for a first offense involving 100 grams or more. Fines for such an offense can reach $10 million. First offenses involving lesser amounts of 10-99 grams may result in sanctions up to and including 5 years imprisonment and fines of up to $5 million. Under federal law, a first offense for trafficking in marijuana may lead to sanctions up to life imprisonment for an offense involving 1,000 kg or more or up to 5 years imprisonment for an offense involving less than 50 kg. Such an offense carries with it fines that can reach $4 million for an individual offender. Federal and State sanctions for illegal possession of controlled substances ranges from up to one-year imprisonment and up to $100,000 in fines to three years imprisonment and $250,000 in fines for repeat offenders. Violations may also lead to forfeiture of personal and real property and denial of federal benefits, such as grants, contracts, and student loans.

Description of Health Risks Associated with the Use of Illicit Drugs and the Abuse of Alcohol

Alcohol

- General Health Effects/Risks: Low doses cause euphoria, mild stimulation and relaxation; higher doses, slurred speech, nausea, drowsiness, muscular incoordination and possible aggression. Higher doses may cause alcohol poisoning, unintentional injuries, and blackouts (memory impairment) even with moderate use. Frequent use can lead to cirrhosis of liver, pancreatitis, brain disorders, vitamin deficiencies, malnutrition, and addiction. Large doses can cause unconsciousness and death.
- Symptoms: Puffiness of face, redness of eyes, depression, disorientation, shallow respiration, nausea, and dehydration.
- Duration: 1-12 hours.
- Alcohol consumption causes a number of marked changes in behavior. Even low doses significantly impair the judgment and coordination required to drive a car safely, increasing the likelihood that the driver will be involved in an accident. Low to moderate doses of alcohol also increase the incidence of a variety of aggressive acts, including partner and child abuse, and sexual assaults. Moderate to high doses of alcohol cause marked impairments in higher mental functions, severely altering a person's ability to learn and remember information. Very high doses cause respiratory depression and death. If combined with other depressants of the central nervous system, much lower doses of alcohol will produce the effects just described. Repeated use of alcohol can lead to dependence. Sudden cessation of alcohol intake is likely to produce withdrawal symptoms, including severe anxiety, tremors, hallucinations, and convulsions. Alcohol withdrawal can be life threatening. Long-term consumption of large quantities of alcohol, particularly when combined with poor nutrition, can also lead to permanent damage to vital organs such as the brain and the liver. Mothers who drink alcohol during pregnancy may give birth to infants with fetal alcohol syndrome. These infants have irreversible

- physical abnormalities and mental retardation. In addition, research indicates that children of alcoholic parents are at greater risk than others of developing alcoholism.
- Route of Administration: Swallowed
- Common Names: Liquor, beer or wine

Cannabinoids: Marijuana and Hashish

- Health Effects: Can impair memory perception and judgment by destroying brain cells. It also raises blood pressure and contains more known carcinogens than cigarettes.
 Cannabinoids may cause poor reaction time, increased heart rate, impaired learning, panic attacks, psychosis, and addiction. Frequent use of cannabis may lead to respiratory problems much like those found in tobacco smokers. Because cannabinoids seriously impairs judgment and motor coordination the risk of injury or death increases.
- Symptoms: Euphoria, relaxed inhibitions, disoriented behavior, staring off into space, hilarity without cause, time distortion, bloodshot eyes, and dry mouth and throat.
- Duration: 2-4 hours.
- Route of Administration: Smoked, swallowed
- Common Street Names: Ganja, grass, blunt, herb, joint, weed.

Depressants: Barbiturates, Benzodiazepines, Methaqualone, Alcohol, Tranquilizers

- Health Effects: Slows down activity in the central nervous system of the body.
 Depressants can cause sedation and/or drowsiness, reduced anxiety, feelings of wellbeing, slurred speech, staggering gait, poor judgment/concentration, and slow uncertain reflexes. Large doses can cause respiratory distress, unconsciousness and death particularly when combined with alcohol. Increased tolerance is common. Addiction is possible. Depressants are commonly prescribed to relieve stress, anxiety and anger.
- Symptoms: Slurred speech, disorientation, drunken behavior with possible no odor of alcohol, sedation.
- Duration: 1-16 hours.
- Route of Administration: Injected, swallowed, and snorted.
- Common Street Names: Barbs, reds, yellow jackets, downers, roofies, ropes.

Stimulants: Cocaine, Amphetamine, Methamphetamine

- Health Effects: Speeds up activity in the central nervous system of the body. Causes dilated pupils, increased blood pressure, heart rate, breathing rate and body temperature. Stimulants can cause seizures, heart attacks, stroke and death. Addiction is possible with the use of stimulants. Cocaine may cause nasal damage from snorting.
 Methamphetamine may cause tooth decay/sever dental problems
- Symptoms: Apathy, anxiety, sleeplessness, paranoia, panic attacks, hallucinations, craving for more cocaine, psychosis. Due to reduced appetite weight loss may occur. The use of stimulants may cause constant sniffing due to snorting and subsequent nasal damage.
- Duration: ½ 2 hours.

- Route of Administration: Injected, swallowed, smoked, and snorted.
- Common Street Names: Coke, crack, rock, snow, speed, black beauties, meth, ice, crank.

Dissociative Drugs: PCP or Phencyclidine, Ketamine

- Health Effects: Increased heart rate and blood pressure, large doses can cause convulsions, comas, heart and lung failure and ruptured brain vessels. Users may show long-term effects on memory, judgment, concentration and perception.
- Symptoms: Sweating, nausea, memory loss, dizziness, numbness, hallucination, confusion, agitation, violence and aggression or silence and withdrawn state.
- Duration: variable.
- Route of Administration: Swallowed, smoked, snorted, injected.
- Common Street names: Special K, vitamin K, angel dust, cat valium, peace pill.

Opioids: Heroin and Opium

- Health Effects: Slowed breathing, lowered pulse and blood pressure, tolerance, addiction, the repeated use of opioids can lead to infections of heart lining and valves, skin abscesses and congested lungs. The use of opioids can lead to convulsions, coma and death. The risk of death is increased when combined with alcohol or other CNS Depressants.
- Symptoms: Euphoria, watery eyes, runny nose, yawning, and loss of appetite, tremors, irritability, confusion, panic, chills, sweating, cramps, and nausea.
- Duration: 12-24 hours.
- Route of Administration: Swallowed, injected, smoked and snorted.
- Common Street Names: Smack, dope, skunk, junk.

Inhalants: Gasoline & Glues, Paint, Aerosol Propellants and Other Inhalants

- Health Effects: May include liver and kidney damage. Brain damage occurs when used over a long period of time. All these chemicals carry considerable risk, particularly of cardiac arrhythmia. Inhalants can be fatal and sudden when sniffing highly concentrated amounts of the chemical.
- Symptoms: Very alert, keen senses, hallucinations, dizziness, scrambled words and disconnected sentences. Smells like the substance being used (i.e. gasoline, glue, degreasers, paint and lighter fluid).
- Duration: variable
- Route of Administration: Inhaling or "huffing" or "sniffing" the chemical from a plastic or paper bag.
- Common Street Names: Whippets, poppers.

Hallucinogens: LSD, Mescaline, Psilocybin

- Health Effects: Dilated pupils, nausea, increased body temperature, increased heart rate and blood pressure, hallucinations, stomach cramps, sleeplessness, blackouts. Flashbacks, a recurrence of the drug effects may be a problem for some.
- Symptoms: Beady eyes, nervous, panic, erratic behavior, crying, personality changes, "sees" smells, "hear" colors. Hallucinogens may cause altered perception/marked depersonalization.
- Duration: 3-12 hours.
- Route of Administration: Swallowed, smoked.
- Common Street Names: microdot, buttons, cactus, peyote, purple passion, shrooms.

Club Drugs: MDMA (ecstasy), Methamphetamine and LSD

- Health Effects: Increased heart rate and blood pressure, blurred vision, chills, sweating, and drastic increases in body temperature. The use of club drugs may cause increased wakefulness, increased physical activity and are believed to cause permanent brain damage. The use of club drugs bring with it considerable risk of addiction.
- Symptoms: confusion, depression, sleep difficulties, anxiety, paranoia, muscle tension, involuntary teeth clenching, and nausea.
- Duration: variable, up to days.
- Route of Administration: Swallowed, snorted, injected.
- Common Names: "Date rape" "drug rape."

Prescription Drugs: Central Nervous System (CNS) Depressants, Stimulants, Opioids

- Health Effects: Many prescription medications have mind altering properties that may lead someone to use a specific prescription drug in a manner different than its intended purpose. Commonly abused prescription drugs are those that belong to the categories of depressants, stimulants and opioids. Possible health consequences include: 1) Depressants slow down activity in the central nervous system of the body, cause sedation and/or drowsiness, reduced anxiety, feelings of well-being, slurred speech, gait, poor judgment/concentration, slow uncertain unconsciousness, addiction, coma, and, increased risk of death when combined with alcohol or other depressant drugs; 2) Stimulants speed up activity in the central nervous system of the body, cause dilated pupils, increased blood pressure, heart rate, breathing rate and body temperature, seizures, heart attacks, stroke, addiction, for stimulants; and, 3) Opioids can result in slowed breathing, lowered pulse and blood pressure, tolerance, and possibly addiction. Repeated use of opioids can lead to infections of heart lining and valves, skin abscesses and congested lungs. The use of opioids can lead to convulsions, coma and death. The risk of death is increased when combined with alcohol or other CNS Depressants.
- Symptoms: Depressants will likely cause slurred speech, disorientation, drunken behavior with possible no odor of alcohol, sedation. Stimulants may cause apathy, anxiety, sleeplessness, paranoia, panic attacks, hallucinations, craving, and psychosis. Due to reduced appetite weight loss may occur. The use of stimulants may cause constant sniffing due to snorting and subsequent nasal damage. Opioids, euphoria, watery eyes, runny nose, yawning, and loss of appetite, tremors, irritability, confusion, panic, chills, sweating, cramps, and nausea.

- Duration: Variable
- Route of Administration: Swallowed, injected, smoked, snorted.
- Common Market Names: Amytal, Nembutal, Seconal, Phenobarbital, Ativan, Halcion, Librium, Valium, Xanax, Ambien, Sonata, Empirin with Codeine, Fiorinal with Codeine, Robitussin A-C, Tylenol with Codeine, Tylox, Oxycontin, Percodan, Percocet, Dexedrine, Adderall, Concerta, Ritalin.

Other: Bath Salts and Synthetic Marijuana

- Health Effects: Bath Salts produce effects similar to amphetamines and cocaine and have been reported to cause racing heart, high blood pressure, headache, and possible chest pains. Frequent use may cause increased tolerance, addiction, psychological and physical withdrawal and possible suicide. Synthetic Marijuana produces experiences similar to marijuana such as elevated mood, impaired judgment, elevated heart rate, altered perception.
- Symptoms: Bath Salts have been reported to produce euphoria, severe intoxication, increased sociability, increased sex drive, paranoia, panic attacks, agitation, possible delirium, and possible psychotic and violent behavior. Synthetic Marijuana has been reported to cause extreme anxiety, panic, paranoia and hallucinations.
- Duration: Variable
- Route of Administration: Swallowed, injected, smoked, snorted
- Common Names: Ivory Wave, Bloom, Cloud Nine, Lunar Wave, Vanilla Sky, White Lightning, and Scarface. K-2 fake weed, moon rocks, skunk.

Description of Drug or Alcohol Counseling and/or Treatment Availability

Through the university counseling services, health service, and appropriate local agencies, Concord University will assist individuals needing drug or alcohol counseling and/or treatment. High quality effort will be made to enhance the institution's capability for offering employees and students meaningful and helpful referral to treatment services when it becomes clear that neither campus prevention nor early intervention activities have met an individual's needs. The University's Counseling Services can provide other campus and community resources.

Disciplinary Measures

Unlawful possession, use, manufacture, or distribution of alcohol or illicit drugs by faculty, staff, or students on University property or as a part of any University activity may lead to sanctions within the University, the severity of which shall increase as the seriousness of the violation increases.

Sanctions include:

- A verbal or written reprimand;
- Completion of an appropriate rehabilitation program;
- A disciplinary warning, with notice that repetition of the offense or continuation of the offense may result in a more serious sanction;
- Suspension from the University (student) or from employment (employee) or from a specific University activity or facility for a fixed period of time or until completion of specified conditions, such as completion of an appropriate rehabilitation program;
- Expulsion from the University (student) or termination of employment (faculty and staff); and/or other appropriate sanctions

Please contact the Office of Student Affairs and the Student Handbook if you are a student or contact the Office of Human Resources and review Board of Governors Policy No. 49 if you are an employee.

Employee Reporting Requirement

Under the Drug-Free Workplace Act of 1988, in addition to the other requirements of this policy, a faculty or staff member who works in any capacity under a federal grant or contract must notify his or her University supervisor or department head, in writing, of his or her conviction for a violation of any criminal drug statute occurring in the workplace no later than five calendar days after such conviction. This requirement applies regardless of whether the employee is full-time or part-time and regardless of whether the worker is an employee of the University, the Concord University Research & Development Corp., or is hired on a contract-basis. This applies to direct charge employees and to the indirect charge employees who perform any support or overhead functions related to the grant. The supervisor or department head must then promptly report the violation to the University's Office of Human Resources.

Drug Program Evaluation

Biennially, the University shall review its "Alcohol and Drugs Prevention Program and Policy on Alcohol and Drugs" to determine the program's and policy's effectiveness and implement changes, if needed, and to ensure that the University's disciplinary sanctions are consistently enforced.

The Institution also provided information on its website under Human Resources Employment Notices, "Drug and Alcohol Free Workplace." https://www.concord.edu/about/important-offices-and-centers/human-resources/employment-notices.

Prevention Education

Students are provided information in many different ways including hand-outs, posted flyers, information on the website, as part of their University 100 course, during trainings for different student employment positions, offered seminars and education programs, sponsored activities, and more.

The Counseling Center provides additional information related to Alcohol and Substance Abuse. This information can be found under www.concord.edu Student Life > Student Health & Wellness > Counseling Center > Alcohol and Substance Abuse https://www.concord.edu/student-life/student-health-wellness/alcohol-and-substance-abuse.

Substance abuse is an overindulgence or dependence on an addictive substance. Substance use and abuse is a serious danger to one's health, life, and future. Not only does drug and alcohol abuse interfere greatly with school, work, and relationships, substance abuse also causes uncomfortable to severe side effects and can lead to a life of addiction. Knowing the warning signs of substance use could help save yourself or others from these dangers. For more information, visit the National Institute on Drug Abuse. Your health insurance may cover substance abuse treatment services.

BetterMynd is a FREE telehealth service available 24/7 for all Concord University students. With BetterMynd, CU students have access to counseling and workshop services during traditional counseling center hours (8 a.m. to 4 p.m.) as well as evenings, weekends and during university breaks. For more information, visit the Counseling Center page.

MISSING STUDENT NOTIFICATION POLICY

Consistent with the University's emergency notification procedures, any time a student is believed to be missing from campus, University Police must be notified immediately so they can coordinate efforts to locate the student. University Police hold the authority and responsibility for managing the University's response, including assisting the student's family in locating the missing student. They will also coordinate with the President, Dean of Students, and Chief Risk Management Officer to determine and implement any appropriate actions once a student is confirmed missing.

Any member of the campus community who becomes aware that a student may be missing for more than 24 hours should promptly notify University Police. This ensures that a formal missing student report is filed, and an official investigation is initiated and documented. All reports received by a University official regarding a missing student will be reported to the CUPD immediately.

Each residential student has the opportunity, at any time during the year, to designate a confidential emergency contact to be notified in the event of an emergency, including if they are reported missing. This information is accessible only to authorized University officials and will not be disclosed except to law enforcement personnel as needed to support a missing student investigation.

As we do serve students who may be under the age of 18, Concord reserves the right to contact the parents or legal guardian of a student under 18 within 24 hours of being determined missing. Concord also reserves the right, in an effort to utilize all available resources, to contact local law enforcement within 24 hours of the determination that a student is missing.

CRIME STATISTICS – GENERAL

The reporting requirements below are presented in a table format and includes statistics for the three most recent calendar years.

It is important to note that some victims prefer not to report incidents of crime to the police, but to confide in various confidential sources. Reasonable attempts have been made to identify all reported (to the Public Safety Office) crimes and to present the statistics in this report, as well as offenses known by or reported to other members of the Concord community.

The sexual assault/abuse report includes situations of acquaintance or date rape reported to and handled by the Public Safety Office. University officials may use their discretion in matters relating to liquor law violations and occasionally refer such cases to the campus judicial system.

Definitions of Reportable Crimes:

(Adapted from The Handbook for Campus Safety & Security Reporting)

Primary Crimes / Criminal Offenses

Criminal Homicide, including Murder and Non-negligent Manslaughter, and Manslaughter by Negligence; Sexual Assault, including Rape, Fondling, Incest and Statutory Rape; Robbery; Aggravated Assault; Burglary; Motor Vehicle Theft; and Arson.

Sexual Assault (Sex Offenses). Any sexual act directed against another person, without consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent. Include attempted Sexual Assaults, but do not include in your Clery Act statistics any Sexual Assaults other than the four types of Sexual Assaults described in this chapter.

Hate Crimes

Any of the above-mentioned offenses, and any incidents of Larceny-Theft, Simple Assault, Intimidation, or Destruction/Damage/ Vandalism of Property that were motivated by bias.

VAWA Crimes

Any incidents of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence and Stalking. (Note that Sexual Assault is also a VAWA Offense but is included in the Criminal Offenses category for Clery Act reporting purposes)

Arrests & Referrals for Disciplinary Action

For Weapons—Carrying, Possessing, Etc. Law Violations, Drug Abuse Violations and Liquor Law Violations.

VAWA CRIMES REPORTING

Dating Violence, Domestic Violence, and Stalking

Dating Violence – Violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim.

- The existence of such a relationship shall be based on the reporting party's statement and with consideration of the length of the relationship, the type of relationship, and the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.
- · For the purposes of this definition—
 - 1. Dating violence includes, but is not limited to, sexual or physical abuse or the threat of such abuse.
 - 2. Dating violence does not include acts covered under the definition of domestic violence.

Domestic Violence – A Felony or misdemeanor crime of violence committed—

- By a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim;
- By a person with whom the victim shares a child in common;
- By a person who is cohabitating with, or has cohabitated with, the victim as a spouse or intimate partner;
- By a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction in which the crime of violence occurred; or

 By any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person's acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction in which the crime of violence occurred.

Stalking – Engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to—

- Fear for the person's safety or the safety of others; or
- Suffer substantial emotional distress.
- For the purposes of this definition—
 - 1. Course of conduct means two or more acts, including, but not limited to, acts which the stalker directly, indirectly, or through third parties, by any action, method, device, or means follows, monitors, observes, surveils, threatens, or communicates to or about, a person, or interferes with a person's property.
 - 2. Reasonable person means a reasonable person under similar circumstances and with similar identities to the victim.
 - 3. Substantial emotional distress means significant mental suffering or anguish that may, but does not necessarily, require medical or other professional treatment or counseling.

ANNUAL FIRE SAFETY REPORTS AND STATISTICS

Description of On-Campus Housing Facilities: Concord University sits on approximately 125 acres located in Athens, West Virginia. The University maintains 4 separate residential halls that include North Tower (female only), South Tower (male only), Wilson Hall (male/female only floors), and Mill Street Apartments.

Student Notice – Fire Safety

All Concord students, through either Orientation, Residential Assistant Programs/Meetings, the University 100 course, or the new residential student notification packet, are given information about the University's Fire Safety & Evacuation Procedures. Below is a synopsis of the guidance provided:

The following procedures have been developed for the health, safety, and welfare of persons residing in Concord University residence halls. Persons residing in the residence halls are required to observe these procedures and completely cooperate with staff and other personnel during all evacuation conditions. Failure to comply with any of the following procedures may result in disciplinary action.

- 1. It is illegal to tamper with fire hoses, fire extinguishers, standpipe, sprinkler heads, or fire alarms.
- 2. It is illegal to block, wedge, or otherwise prevent any fire door from closing.
- 3. When fire and emergency alarms sound, all persons will immediately proceed to the nearest exit in a quiet and orderly fashion.
- 4. If the nearest exit is blocked, proceed to an alternate exit.
- 5. Close all doors as you leave.
- 6. Upon exiting the facility, move away from the evacuated building.
- 7. Listen for directions.
- 8. Report observance of any fire or people who could be in danger to those individuals in charge.
- 9. Do not re-enter the building until instructed by staff to do so; silencing of the alarm is not a signal to re-enter.
- 10. Re-enter through the main entrance only.
- 11. Elevators are not to be used as a means of exiting a residence hall during an evacuation

NOTE: Upon moving into a residence hall, each person is responsible for identifying the locations of various evacuation exits available in case an emergency should occur. When the alarm sounds, assume an emergency exists and vacate the premises immediately to reduce the possibility of being trapped. The sounding of the fire alarm is the only warning that you will receive for a possible emergency.

What you will need to do when you smell smoke:

WHERE THERE IS ANY AMOUNT OF SMOKE, immediately activate the alarm system and evacuate the building.

- Keep in mind the following guidelines when regular fire procedures are being followed:
 - Heat and most toxic gases rise. Therefore, you should crouch or crawl to avoid the most dangerous atmosphere.
 - Take short breaths, breathing through your nose only.
 - If trapped, placing any room with a closed door between you and the fire/smoke may offer refuge. Wait at a window for rescue. Open the window or break it out when breathing becomes difficult.
- 2. NEVER OPEN A HOT DOOR—SMOKE CAN BE FATAL.

- If there is enough heat in the hall to penetrate the wood panels, there is more than enough to kill you before you get to the head of the stairs or exit the door. This is what you should do:
 - Place the back of your hand on the door panel above your head. If there is heat, DO NOT OPEN THE DOOR! The hallway is already filled with deadly heated gases.
 - If you cannot escape through a window, then REMAIN IN THE ROOM with the door closed. Wait at the window for rescue. Shout for help.
- o If the door does not feel hot you may open it slightly provided caution is used:
 - Brace the door with your hip or foot.
 - Place your hand across the opening to determine the temperature of the air.
 - If the air is hot, or if there is pressure against the door, CLOSE IT HARD. It is already too late to exit.
 - If the hallway appears safe, use a planned exit, and loudly arouse other occupants as you leave.

Combustible materials are strictly prohibited in all residence halls. This includes, but is not limited to, items enumerated under the heading of Items You Are Required To Leave At Home. Confiscation and disposal of such items shall be permanent.

Disabling smoke detectors, or any fire safety equipment, by removing batteries or covering the detector with any material, is a violation of federal fire safety code and strictly prohibited. Fines/fees shall be determined by either the State Fire Marshal or the Director of Housing and Residence Life.

Concord University is a tobacco free campus. The use of all tobacco products (Smokeless tobacco, smoking, and vaping) is prohibited in residence halls and on campus. Residents are required to observe this policy at all times.

When a fire alarm is sounded, all students are required by law to vacate the building.

Employee Notice – Fire Safety

Fire Evacuation Procedure

Fire alarms are located in each University building. Note: Fire alarms are NOT directly linked to the dispatcher in Public Safety, the Athens Volunteer Fire Department, nor the Princeton Fire Department. Please call 911 to report an emergency.

Any time a fire alarm sounds in a University building, all occupants must evacuate the building immediately. Any faculty, staff, or student with a disability should be assisted to the nearest clear exit. Employees should not try to carry individuals with disabilities out of the building unless it is an extreme emergency.

If employees know the source of the alarm, they should make this information known to Public Safety as soon as possible by calling (304) 384-5357 or dialing 911 for emergencies. Do not use elevators during a fire alarm. Employees should evacuate the building and remain outside until the alarm has been silenced and a public safety official or representative of the fire department has authorized re-entry.

Fire Safety Disclosures: Requirements & Definition of a Fire

The HEA fire safety regulations apply only to institutions with on-campus student housing facilities and focus exclusively on those facilities. The regulations do not apply to other buildings on your campus or to any non-campus student housing facilities your institution might own or control. See 34 CFR 668.49.

An institution with on-campus student housing facilities is required to - Maintain a log of all reported fires that occur in those on-campus student housing facilities. See 34 CFR 668.49(d).

- Publish an annual fire safety report that contains fire safety policies and fire statistics for each of those facilities. See 34 CFR 668.49(b).
- Submit the fire statistics from the fire safety report annually to the Department. See 34 CFR 668.49(c).

Definition of a Fire

For the purposes of fire safety reporting, a "fire" is defined as any instance of open flame or other burning in a place not intended to contain the burning or in an uncontrolled manner.

This definition contains two descriptions of fire. The first is "any instance of open flame or other burning in a place not intended to contain the burning." Some examples are:

- trash-can fire
- oven or microwave fire
- burning oven mitt on a stove
- grease fire on a stovetop
- flame coming from electric extension cord
- burning wall hanging or poster
- fire in an overheated bathroom vent fan
- couch that is burning without any flame evident

The second type of fire is "any instance of open flame or other burning in an uncontrolled manner." Some examples are:

- chimney fire
- gas stove fire
- fuel burner or boiler fire

Include:

- all fires that meet the definition regardless of
 - o size
 - o cause
 - whether the fire results in injury, death or property damage
 - your institution's fire safety policies. Even if your institution prohibits the burning of candles in dorms, a lit candle doesn't meet the definition of a fire.
 If drapes catch on fire due to brushing against a lit candle, the burning drapes meet the definition.

- fires on the roof or the outside walls of a building even if the fire doesn't reach the inside
- an incident where there is evidence that there was burning, for example, a singed electrical cord
- fires in parking facilities and dining halls that are physically attached to and accessed directly from, on-campus student housing facilities. "Accessed directly from" means that an individual can enter the parking area or dining hall directly from the housing area without leaving the building. Note that if there is a vehicle fire (i.e., a fire that is confined to a vehicle) in a student housing facility parking garage, this is not a student housing facility fire. However, if there is a fire in the garage that spreads to a vehicle, or if a vehicle fire spreads to the garage, this is a student housing facility fire.
- fires reported to any official at your institution (e.g., to a residence life officer), not just campus fire authorities or campus security authorities.

Do not include:

- sparks or smoke where there is no open flame or other burning
- such incidents as burnt microwave popcorn that trigger fire alarms or smoke detectors but where there are no open flames or other burning
- attempted Arson in cases where there is no open flame or burning.
- fires in parking facilities and dining halls that are not physically attached to and accessed directly from on-campus student housing facilities, even if the facilities are reserved for the use of residents in those housing facilities
- incidents that violate your institution's fire safety policies but that do not meet the definition of a fire.

Fire Safety Education and Training Programs for Students, Faculty and Staff

The University periodically hosts different training and educational opportunities related to fire safety, fire extinguisher use, and evacuation procedures (fire drills).

University officials coordinate fire extinguisher training annually for anyone on campus to attend. All fire extinguishers are inspected annually and changed when needed. Each Building is provided with evacuation routes that are located on each floor of each building in multiple locations including hallways, bulletin boards, bathrooms, classrooms, etc.

Residential Directors and Assistants (RDs & RAs) are provided with training each year related to fire safety, safe evacuation tactics, fire extinguisher use, and reporting a fire.

^{}This is the number of planned drills. Any time the fire alarm organically goes off, Housing Staff will complete the Emergency Evacuation Form for record.

^{}Mill Street Apartments have individual fire alarm and smoke detectors for each apartment space.

Smoking Policy

Tobacco use, including smokeless tobacco and vaping products, is prohibited in all areas of campus. There is no designated tobacco use areas.

Pursuant to CU-HR-72: Smoking and Tobacco Use, Concord University is committed to providing a safe and healthy campus community in which to live, learn, work, and play for the students, faculty, staff and guests on campus, and therefore, has adopted a tobacco-free campus policy.

This policy is applicable to faculty, staff, students of Concord University and its visitors and guests and applies to all Concord University facilities, property, and vehicles, owned or leased, located on the main campus in Athens. Smoking and the use of tobacco products shall not be permitted indoors nor outdoors while on campus. This policy does not cover smoking or tobacco use in an individual's personal vehicle.

"Smoking" means inhaling, exhaling, burning, or carrying any lighted or heated cigar, cigarette, or pipe, or any other lighted or heated tobacco or plant product intended for inhalation, including hookahs and marijuana, whether natural or synthetic, in any manner or in any form. "Smoking" also includes the use of an electronic smoking device which creates an aerosol or vapor, in any manner or in any form, or the use of any oral smoking device.

"Tobacco Product" means any substance containing tobacco leaf, including but not limited to, cigarettes, cigars, pipe tobacco, hookah tobacco, snuff, chewing tobacco, dipping tobacco, bidis, blunts, clove cigarettes, or any other preparation of tobacco.

This policy is available to all faculty and staff, included with information given to all admitted students, and posted on the University's webpage. Signs prohibiting smoking and the use of tobacco products are posted throughout the campus, particularly in common areas previously designated as smoking areas. No ashtrays are provided at any location on campus. Smoking cessation programs are available to assist and encourage individuals who wish to quit smoking.

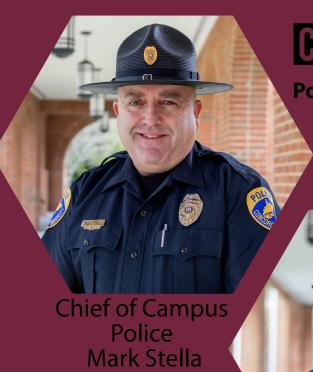

Policy violations will be addressed through minimally necessary corrective action to obtain and maintain compliance congruent with progressive disciplinary processes (casual reminder, verbal warning, suspension, etc.) for similar minor offenses referenced in the Student Code of Conduct (students), Employee Handbooks (staff/faculty), and Board Policy.

Future Improvements in Fire Safety

Concord is committed to strengthening fire safety across our campus and residence halls by continuously monitoring trends in fire incidents and alarms. Our priority is to provide a safe living and learning environment where students understand potential hazards and know how to protect themselves and others from harm. Looking ahead, Concord will continue to identify and address potential risks before they become safety concerns, with a strong focus on prevention and education. In partnership with the Director of Facilities, we will maintain and upgrade our campus buildings to meet or exceed fire and life safety codes, ensuring that every space on campus remains safe and secure for students, staff, faculty, and visitors.
