

STUDIO ART

The Concord University Studio Art Program prepares students for careers as professionals in the fields of ceramics, illustration, photography, painting, printmaking and sculpture. Studio Art graduates are also equipped to pursue careers in art gallery and museum direction.

The Department of Fine Arts provides students with the instruction, equipment, and opportunities necessary to develop proficiency and historical perspective in their chosen area of artistic specialization. The curriculum balances the teaching of technical knowledge and skills with the development of critical, conceptual, and creative abilities. Faculty members are recognized professional artists with a diversity of viewpoints and educational training that facilitates the aesthetic and professional development of its students.
